The spread of the internet has had a world-changing effect, not least on the world of education. The use of the internet in academic contexts is on the rise, and its role in learning is hotly debated. For many teachers who did not grow up with this technology, its effects seem alarming and potentially harmful. This concern, while understandable, is misguided. The negatives of internet use are outweighed by its critical benefits for students and educators -- as a uniquely comprehensive and accessible information source, a means of exposure to and engagement with different perspectives, and a highly flexible learning environment.

conversation and argumentation: Theoretical perspectives and innovative empirical studies, volume II Antonio Bova, Lise Haddouk, Carlo Galimberti, Francesco Arcidiacono, 2023-06-22 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language Alan R.

Hirvela, Diane Belcher, 2021-12-13 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language is a collection on teaching argumentative writing, offering multiple vantage points drawn from the contributors' own teaching and research experiences. The value of learning how to compose argumentative texts cannot be overstated and yet very little attention has been allocated to the equally important topic of how argumentation is or can be taught in the L2 context. Thus this volume shifts attention to teachers and argumentative writing instruction especially within increasingly common multimodal and digital literacy settings. While doing so it provides a comprehensive wide ranging view of the L2 argumentative writing landscape within an instructional lens. Part I of the volume is topic oriented and focuses on explorations of important issues and perspectives while Part II features several chapters reporting classroom based studies of a variety of instructional approaches that expand our understanding of how argumentative writing can be taught. The book will be of value to pre service and in service teachers in varying instructional contexts as well as teacher educators and L2 writing scholars researchers.
