Write a persuasive or argumentative essay responding to a statement that raises a debatable issue and that asks you to take a position on that issue.

Argumentative Essay

Reality television is one of the most popular forms of entertainment in the world. It is a type of television programming that features ordinary people in various situations, often competing for a prize. Reality TV shows have become a major part of the entertainment industry, and they have also become a topic of debate. Some people believe that reality TV is a waste of time and money, while others believe that it is a valuable form of entertainment. In this essay, I will argue that reality TV is a waste of time and money.

Third language acquisition

Camilla Bardel, Laura Sánchez, This book deals with the phenomenon of third language L3 acquisition As a research field L3 acquisition is established as a branch of multilingualism that is concerned with how multilinguals learn additional languages and the role that their multilingual background plays in the process of language learning The volume points out some current directions in this particular research area with a number of studies that reveal the complexity of multilingual language learning and its typical variation and dynamics The eight studies gathered in the book represent a wide range of theoretical positions and offer empirical evidence from learners belonging to different age groups and with varying levels of proficiency in the target language as well as in other non native languages belonging to the learner s repertoire Diverse linguistic phenomena and language combinations are viewed from a perspective where all previously acquired languages have a potential role to play in the process of learning a new language In the six empirical studies contexts of language learning in school or at university level constitute the main outlet for data collection These studies involve several language backgrounds and language combinations and focus on various linguistic features The specific target languages in the empirical studies are English French and Italian The volume also includes two theoretical chapters The first one conceptualizes and describes the different types of multilingual language learning investigated in the volume i third or additional language learning by learners who are bilinguals from an early age and ii third or additional language learning by people who have previous experience of one or more non native languages learned after the critical period In particular issues related to the roles played by age and proficiency in multilingual acquisition are discussed The other theoretical chapter conceptualizes the grammatical category of aspect reviewing previous studies on second and third language acquisition of aspect Different models for L3 learning and their relevance and implications for representations of aspect and for potential differences in the processing of second and third language acquisition are also examined in this chapter As a whole the book presents current research into third or additional language learning by young learners or adults considering some of the most important factors for the complex process of multilingual language learning the age of onset of the additional language and that of previously acquired languages social and affective factors instruction language proficiency and literacy the typology of the background languages and the role they play in shaping syntax lexicon and other components of a L3 The idea for this book emanates from the symposium Multilingualism language proficiency and age organized by Camilla Bardel and Laura Sánchez at Stockholm University Department of Language Education in December 2016
