Argumentative Writing in a Second Language Alan R. Hirvela, Diane Belcher, 2021-12-13 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language is a collection on teaching argumentative writing offering multiple vantage points drawn from the contributors own teaching and research experiences The value of learning how to compose argumentative texts cannot be overstated and yet very little attention has been allocated to the equally important topic of how argumentation is or can be taught in the L2 context Thus this volume shifts attention to teachers and argumentative writing instruction especially within increasingly common multimodal and digital literacy settings While doing so it provides a comprehensive wide ranging view of the L2 argumentative writing landscape within an instructional lens Part I of the volume is topic oriented and focuses on explorations of important issues and perspectives while Part II features several chapters reporting classroom based studies of a variety of instructional approaches that expand our understanding of how argumentative writing can be taught The book will be of value to pre service and in service teachers in varying instructional contexts as well as teacher educators and L2 writing scholars researchers

A Textbook of Grammar and Writing Skills K. Thomas Baby, 2025-04-27 This textbook presents a unique version of simplified English grammar that is easily understood by the average EFL student who struggles with the complex explanations found in standard grammar books prescribed for undergraduate students Moreover many prescribed grammar textbooks often lack sufficient practice materials and overlook certain seemingly trivial aspects of language that are crucial for language acquisition Therefore this book is specifically designed to address these challenges by shifting from traditional rule based grammar learning to a cognitive approach that identifies patterns of correct sentence structure This method makes grammar instruction easier and more engaging for the average student Additionally the book includes dedicated sections on summarizing paraphrasing and essay writing activities aimed at developing the writing skills of students at varying language levels by providing suitable practice materials
