Military Police United States. Department of the Army, 1979 Enlisted Qualifications Manual United States. Coast Guard, 1990 Military Publications United States. Department of the Army, 1977 Technical Manual United States Department of the Army, 1966 Technical Manual United States. War Department, 1945 Police Analysis and Planning for Homicide Bombings John W. Ellis, 2007 Police Analysis and Planning for Homicide Bombings is oriented toward planning police operations in the public sector but will be usable by other public officials as well as by some military and private sector police operations It addresses police threat assessment of vulnerability assessment to defense against and response to attacks by homicide bombs It begins with an essay on the distinctions between military and police operations and includes an examination of the U S counter terrorist policy and structure assessment of explosive weapons of mass destruction and the terrorist ability to make and use them the legal limitations of police response operations in the United States and defensive response to this form of attack It concludes with commentary on actions that may be needed if this threat continues to develop in the United States Relying upon both experience and research the author has synthesized the varied military law enforcement and private security approaches into a detailed analysis of the threat posed by terrorist use of homicide bombs and the necessary internal response With the first hand experience of applying the knowledge in an actual threat environment the combination of historical perspective and reality confrontation produces an effective examination of the topic for the police administrator and emergency planner The Provost Marshal United States. Department of the Army, 1953 The Road to Abu Ghraib James F. Gebhardt, 2005 The 2004 revelations of detainee maltreatment at the Abu Ghraib prison outside of Baghdad Iraq have led to an exhaustive overhaul of Army doctrine and training with respect to this topic The Army has identified disconnects in its individual leader and collective training programs and has also identified the absence of a deliberate focused doctrinal crosswalk between the two principal branches concerned with detainees Military Intelligence MI and Military Police MP These problems and their consequences are real and immediate The perceptions of just treatment held by citizens of our nation and to a great extent the world at large have been and are being shaped by the actions of the US Army both in the commission of detainee maltreatment but also and more importantly in the way the Army

addresses its institutional shortcomings This study examines the relationship over time between doctrine in two branches of the Army Military Police MP and Military Intelligence MI and the Geneva Convention Relative to the Treatment of Prisoners of War GPW Specifically it analyzes the MP detention field manual series and the MI interrogation field manual series to evaluate their GPW content It also further examines the relationship of military police and military intelligence to each other in the enemy prisoner of war EPW and detainee operations environment as expressed in their doctrinal manuals Finally the study looks at the Army s experience in detainee operations through the prism of six conflicts or contingency operations the Korean War Vietnam Operation URGENT FURY Grenada 1983 Operation JUST CAUSE Panama 1989 Operation DESERT STORM Iraq 1991 and Operation UPHOLD DEMOCRACY Haiti 1994 Provost Marshal ,1953 Index of Doctrinal, Training, and Organizational Publications United States.
