Organizers Debra Housel, 2008-09 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language Alan R. Hirvela, Diane Belcher, 2021-12-13 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language is a collection on teaching argumentative writing offering multiple vantage points drawn from the contributors own teaching and research experiences The value of learning how to compose argumentative texts cannot be overstated and yet very little attention has been allocated to the equally important topic of how argumentation is or can be taught in the L2 context Thus this volume shifts attention to teachers and argumentative writing instruction especially within increasingly common multimodal and digital literacy settings While doing so it provides a comprehensive wide ranging view of the L2 argumentative writing landscape within an instructional lens Part I of the volume is topic oriented and focuses on explorations of important issues and perspectives while Part II features several chapters reporting classroom based studies of a variety of instructional approaches that expand our understanding of how argumentative writing can be taught The book will be of value to pre service and in service teachers in varying instructional contexts as well as teacher educators and L2 writing scholars researchers Transforming Talk into Text—Argument Writing, Inquiry, and Discussion, Grades 6-12 Thomas M. McCann, 2014-05-23 Author Thomas McCann invites readers to rethink their approach to teaching writing by capitalizing on students instinctive desire to talk Drawing on extensive classroom research he shows teachers how to craft class discussions that build students skills of analysis problem solving and argumentation as a means of improving student writing McCann demonstrates how authentic discussions immerse learners in practices that become important when they write Chapters feature portraits of teachers at work including transcripts that reveal patterns of talk across a set of lessons Interviews with the teachers and samples of student writing afford readers a deeper understanding of process Students also report on how classroom discussions supported their effort to produce persuasive argument driven essays Book Features A focus on the thinking behind the practice as opposed to a collection of lesson ideas Connections to important elements from the Common Core State Standards especially arguments writing Examples of students at work with examples of the writing that emerges from their discussions Portraits of skilled teachers as they promote inquiry and sequence and facilitate discussions Appendices with problem based scenarios interview questions for students and teachers samples of debatable cases in the news and more In this important book Tom McCann has given us not only the admonition to change but the details about what effective change must be and what it looks like evidence that it works effectively and details about how to bring it to pass From the Foreword by George Hillocks Jr Professor Emeritus Department of English University of Chicago For a professional book to have an impact on the field it needs to address a perceived need Writing arguments for Common Core performance assessments is a HUGE need right now that this book helps address Carol Jago associate director California Reading and Literature Project UCLA

Critical Writing Secondary Framework Joseph Burke, 2024-11-26 Every secondary education teacher could use a little guidance when it comes to teaching and assessing academic writing Whether English ESL history or even science all teachers requiring students submitting reports of any sort can benefit from the tips and data presented in Critical Writing in the Secondary Classroom Within these pages lies explanations of the importance of summative assessment beyond just formative assessment in the classroom comparing benchmark data in order to measure skill growth and how to share this data with students Parents as well can benefit from learning how their children would be assessed in their writing and understanding the concepts that lie at the heart of the teacher s grading scale New to this edition teachers can learn how to analyze the data of their students writings without the use of EdTech and for free About the Author Joseph Burke has taught in public education since 1995 within different districts in the states of Utah Arizona and California mostly ELA at the high school level He belongs to the professional associations National Council of Teachers of English and the National Education Association Burke holds his BA from Brigham Young University and his graduate degree from Northern Arizona University He is married with two children and currently resides in Utah

Handbook of Research on Writing Instruction Practices for Equitable and Effective Teaching Hodges, Tracey S., 2022-05-27 Writing is a critical component for teaching children about advocacy and empowering student voice as well as an essential tool for learning in many disciplines Yet writing instruction in schools often focuses on traditional methods such as the composition of five paragraph essays or the adherence to proper grammatical conventions While these are two components of writing instruction and preparation in education they only provide a small glimpse into the depth and breadth of writing As such writing instruction is increasingly complex and requires multiple perspectives and levels of skill among teachers The Handbook of Research on Writing Instruction Practices for Equitable and Effective Teaching serves as a comprehensive reference of issues related to writing instruction and leading research about perspectives methods and approaches for equitable and effective writing instruction It includes practices beyond K 12 including best writing practices at the college level as well as the development of future teachers Providing unique coverage on culturally relevant writing socio and racio linguistic justice and urgent writing pedagogies this major reference work is an indispensable resource for administrators and educators of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers teacher educators libraries government officials researchers and academicians
