Then only a year later he was recalled to help execute Hitler's invasion of Poland. He played a leading part in this and the subsequent invasion of France. Thereafter he commanded Army Group South in the assault on Russia before being sacked at the end of 1941. Recalled again, Rundstedt was made Commander in Chief West and as such faced the 1944 Allied invasion of France but was removed that July. He resumed his post in September 1944 and had overall responsibility for the December 1944 Ardennes counter offensive. Captured by the Americans, he gave testimony as a defense witness at Nuremberg. Though he was charged with war crimes, he was spared trial due to his ill health.
