Social Workers' Desk Reference Kevin J. Corcoran, Albert R. Roberts, 2015 In the first and second editions of the Social Workers Desk Reference, the changes that were occurring in social work practice, education, and research were highlighted and focused upon. This third edition continues in the same tradition and continues to respond to the changes occurring in society and how they are impacting the education, research, and practice of social work as a whole. Mental Health and Mental Disorders Len Sperry, 2015-12-14 Serving as an indispensable resource for students and general interest readers alike, this three-volume work provides a comprehensive view of mental health that covers both mental well-being and mental illness. A three-volume ready reference encyclopedia, this up-to-date work supplies a holistic introduction to the fields of mental health and mental disorders that is written specifically for high school students and college students. Covering the full continuum of mental health, the set describes typical functioning, including biology and neurology of the brain, emotions, and the traits and characteristics of mental well-being. It also addresses mental disorders and conditions from obsessive compulsive disorder, OCD, and post-traumatic stress disorder, PTSD, to phobias and schizophrenia. Mental Health and Mental Disorders: An Encyclopedia of Conditions, Treatments, and Well-Being highlights important concepts and phenomena, key individuals, treatment techniques, organizations, and diagnostic tools to give readers a complete view of this broad field of study. It also investigates all sides of wellness, exploring what it means to be normal and consistently identifying the links between lifestyle and mental health. The encyclopedia is consistent with the goals of AP psychology curricula and addresses the various disorders classified in the new edition of the APA Diagnostic and Statistical Manual, DSM-V. Professional Applications of Animal Assisted Interventions Melissa Y. Winkle, Melissa Y Winkle Otr/L, 2013-11-21 Professional Applications of Animal Assisted Interventions: Eva's Favorites is a collection of animal assisted intervention activities used in occupational therapy with Eva. Many of these activities were previously published in Dogwood Doga Blue Dog Book or Gray Dog Book. This collection was pulled together to celebrate Eva's life and her legacy. While it is a tribute to her, it is filled with animal assisted therapy and animal assisted education activities that catered to Eva whose abilities outweighed her diagnoses mitochondrial metabolism disorder quadriplegic cerebral palsy seizures closed dislocations of the hip cortical visual impairment strabismus spasticity feeding tubes and communication disorder Eva appeared to have many challenges but this book illustrates a glimpse into her occupational therapy sessions which were based on the human animal bond the key motivating factor in her sessions which resulted in measurable functional progress and quality of life This book contains activities that are useful for just about anyone in the interdisciplinary team who works with a person with similar abilities Readers are guided through activities step by step to identify therapeutic value supplies needed precautions and modifications to make activities more or less difficult In addition words of wisdom from the dog s point of view are provided so that the dog receives prerequisite training and introductions to environments people and activities The baseline information on ethics standards of practice and screening people and dogs for participation is included This title Eva s Favorites and 100% of the proceeds have been gifted to the Little Mustard Seed Trust Fund so we celebrate Eva s life with a sample of letters from some of her students friends and family
