Waverley Magazine ,1853      Pontormo, Bronzino, Allori Elizabeth Pilliod,2001-01-01 Pilliod compares information from documents she has discovered with Vasari's versions of the artists' lives and shows how Vasari manipulated their biographies for example suppressing any mention of Pontormo's status as a court artist including his salary from Duke Cosimo I in order to diminish their reputations to obliterate memory of the traditional Florentine workshops and to enhance the importance of the Academy instead. She also discusses such subjects as the evidence for Pontormo's association with the Medici court, Pontormo's house and its place in the urban fabric of Florence, Bronzino's and Pontormo's intimate association with poets and theatrical spectacles and Allori's painted challenge to Vasari's view of the artistic scene in sixteenth century Florence.

Dark Mirrors Andrei A. Orlov,2011-12-01 Dark Mirrors is a wide-ranging study of two central figures in early Jewish demonology: the fallen angels Azazel and Satanael. Andrei A. Orlov explores the mediating role of these paradigmatic celestial rebels in the development of Jewish demonological traditions from Second Temple apocalypticism to later Jewish mysticism such as that of the Hekhalot and Shi'ur Qomah materials. Throughout Orlov makes use of Jewish pseudepigraphical materials in Slavonic that are not widely known. Orlov traces the origins of Azazel and Satanael to different and competing mythologies of evil: one to the Fall in the Garden of Eden, the other to the revolt of angels in the antediluvian period. Although Azazel and Satanael are initially representatives of rival etiologies of corruption in later Jewish and Christian demonological lore, each is able to enter the other's stories in new conceptual capacities. Dark Mirrors also examines the symmetrical patterns of early Jewish demonology that are often manifested in these fallen angels' imitation of the attributes of various heavenly beings, including principal angels and even God himself.
