The International Criminal Court and Africa Charles Cherner Jalloh,Ilias Bantekas,2017-10-06 Africa has been at the forefront of contemporary global efforts towards ensuring greater accountability for international crimes But the continent s early embrace of international criminal justice seems to be taking a new turn with the recent resistance from some African states claiming that the emerging system of international criminal law represents a new form of imperialism masquerading as international rule of law This book analyses the relationship and tensions between the International Criminal Court ICC and Africa It traces the origins of the confrontation between African governments both acting individually and within the framework of the African Union and the permanent Hague based ICC Leading commentators offer valuable insights on the core legal and political issues that have confused the relationship between the two sides and expose the uneasy interaction between international law and international politics They offer suggestions on how best to continue the fight against impunity using national ICC and regional justice mechanisms while taking into principled account the views and interests of African States Trade Policy Review ,2019 Trade Policy Review - Sierra Leone World Trade Organization,2017-11-13 Each Trade Policy Review consists of three parts a report by the government under review a report written independently by the WTO Secretariat and the concluding remarks by the chair of the Trade Policy Review Body A highlights section provides an overview of key trade facts 15 to 20 new review titles are published each year The reviews consist of detailed chapters examining the trade policies and practices of the member and describing trade policy making institutions and the macroeconomic situation these chapters are preceded by the Secretariat s Summary Observations which summarize the report and presents the Secretariat s perspective on the member s trade policies The Secretariat report and the member s policy statement are published after the review meeting along with the minutes of the meeting and the text of the Chairperson s Concluding Remarks
