Production at the Leading Edge of Technology Bernd-Arno Behrens, Alexander Brosius, Welf-Guntram Drossel, Wolfgang Hintze, Steffen Ihlenfeldt, Peter Nyhuis, 2021-09-04. This congress proceedings provides recent research on leading edge manufacturing processes. The aim of this scientific congress is to work out diverse individual solutions of production at the leading edge of technology and transferable methodological approaches. In addition, guest speakers with different backgrounds will give the congress participants food for thought, interpretations, views and suggestions. The manufacturing industry is currently undergoing a profound structural change which on the one hand produces innovative solutions through the use of high performance communication and information technology and on the other hand is driven by new requirements for goods especially in the mobility and energy sector. With the social discourse on how we should live and act primarily according to guidelines of sustainability, structural change is gaining increasing dynamic. It is essential to translate politically specified sustainability goals into socially accepted and marketable technical solutions. Production research is meeting this challenge and will make important contributions and provide innovative solutions from different perspectives.

What Really Matters? Bernard D. Bull, 2016-09-01. What really matters in education. Amid headlines about standardized test scores, global rankings of students from different countries, technology-enhanced learning, the unreasonable costs of higher education and preparing the workforce of tomorrow, what really matters? If we want to pursue education reform and improvements that truly benefit the lives of current and future students, where should we focus our efforts? In What Really Matters, Dr. Bernard Bull draws from over twenty years of research and experience to offer ten issues that truly matter if we are going to create rich, meaningful, rewarding, engaging and impactful learning organizations that are rooted in the best ideas of the past while preparing people for the challenges and opportunities of the present and future. This is a text for educators, school leaders, community members, parents, students, policymakers and others who aspire to move from educational buzzwords to some of the most important educational challenges and opportunities of our age
