2014 November Zimsec Examination Paper 2economics:

Making Politics in Zimbabwe's Second Republic Gordon Moyo, Kirk Helliker, 2023-05-16 The book provides a fresh and innovative interpretation of the new government of Zimbabwe led by Emmerson Mnangagwa which emerged in late 2017 after the downfall of Robert Mugabe. It demonstrates the contradictory character of the Mnangagwa government involving both continuities and discontinuities in relation to Mugabe's regime. The temptation amongst Zimbabwean scholars has been to focus on the continuities and to dismiss the significance of any discontinuities notably reform measures. This book adopts an alternative approach by identifying and focusing specifically on the existence of a formative project of the Mnangagwa's Second Republic further analysing its political significance as well as risks and limitations. While doing so the book covers topics such as reform measures reconciliation transitional justice corruption the media agriculture devolution and the debt crisis as well as health and education. Discussing the limitations of these different reform measures the book highlights that any scholarly failure to identify the risks of the project leads to an incomplete understanding of what constitutes the Mnangagwa's Second Republic. The book appeals to students scholars and researchers of Zimbabwean and African studies political science and international relations as well as policymakers interested in a better understanding of political reform processes.

The Political Economy of Xenophobia in Africa Adeoye O. Akinola, 2017-11-13 This book analyzes the phenomenon of xenophobia across African countries. With its roots in colonialism which coercively created modern states through border delineation and the artificial merging and dividing of communities xenophobia continues to be a barrier to post colonial sustainable peace and security and socio economic and political development in Africa. This volume critically assesses how xenophobia has impacted the three elements of political economy state economy and society. Beginning with historical and theoretical analysis to put xenophobia in context the book moves on to country specific case studies discussing the nature of xenophobia in Nigeria South Africa Zambia Ghana and Zimbabwe. The chapters furthermore explore both violent and non violent manifestations of xenophobia and analyze how state responses to xenophobia affects African states economies and societies especially in those cases where xenophobia has widespread institutional support. Providing a theoretical understanding of xenophobia and proffering sustainable solutions to the proliferation of xenophobia in the continent this book is of use to researchers and students interested in political science African politics peace studies security and development economics as well as policy makers working to eradicate xenophobia.
