Michael Thrusfield

2014 Question Paper Of Economics In Gauteng:

The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight, Christian M. Rogerson, 2018-10-03 This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa. It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South. All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa. These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South. Journal of Economic Literature, 2014

Bombardier Abroad David P. Thomas, 2018-10-10T00:00:00Z In Bombardier Abroad Thomas examines several cases of the Canadian aerospace giant's work in the high speed rail sector in South Africa, China, Tibet and Israel, Palestine and argues that these projects are deepening existing social and political tensions. By participating in these infrastructure projects, Thomas argues, Bombardier is both inserting itself into highly contested social and political climates and profiting from actions that further exacerbate existing conditions of dispossession and inequality. Thomas also examines the various ways in which the Canadian state supports the work of Bombardier in these countries. Centred around a theoretical framework that combines concepts of dispossession, political economy and important interventions from the field of settler colonial studies, Bombardier Abroad is a critical look at the problematic practices of a Canadian corporation and the ways in which the Canadian state is culpable.

Youth Employment Programmes in Africa Ramos E. Mabugu, Lucas Ronconi, 2025-10-03 This book investigates youth employment programmes across nine African countries, providing important insights into the world's youngest continent by population, in which 60% of people are aged under 25. By 2050, the labour force in sub-Saharan Africa is expected to be almost double the size of the labour force in high income countries, representing a massive shift in the world's working population and providing a significant challenge for job creation. In this book, contributors bring together insights from more than 500 in-depth interviews and 1,500 focus group participants to consider whether youth employment programmes are effectively reaching vulnerable groups. This book tackles the problem of political clientelism in the allocation of benefits and considers the level of coordination that is taking place across programmes and political institutions. Combining rich empirical findings with data about labour market outcomes and institutions, this book will be an important read for researchers wishing to understand the political economy of youth employment policy in Africa.

Business, Peacebuilding, and Regulation Sean Molloy, 2024-08-26 This book examines the relationship between business-based peacebuilding and the opportunities that emerge from the pluralisation of regulation. The core message is notwithstanding the broad range of regulatory initiatives and actors that exist in conflict-affected settings, the state should assume responsibilities for defining the types of contribution that business can and ought to make to peace. It also demonstrates how the state through different forms and methods of regulation is well placed to engage businesses to do so It is particularly concerned with the potential for regulation to help address what is identified as a state of optimistic uncertainty in the field of business and peacebuilding On one level there is a sense of optimism around the types of contributions that businesses can and often do make as agents for peace On another there are varying degrees of uncertainty surrounding the actual peacebuilding impacts of business activities how businesses are to understand the ways in which to make these contributions and why businesses would do so Regulation this book will argue can play an important role in bridging the chasm between optimism and uncertainty This book will be of interest to those engaged not only with business and peacebuilding but also business and human rights business and development and business and the environment Moreover this book is also of contemporary interest in other ways the aftermath of the Ukrainian conflict as an example will require a concerted effort to rebuild that society after war Private sector actors could be a powerful vehicle for reconstruction and development and this book examines how regulation can be used to facilitate businesses involvement in peacebuilding efforts

School Leadership for Democratic Education in South Africa Tsediso Michael Makoelle, Thabo Makhalemele., Pierre du Plessis, 2021-07-29 School Leadership for Democratic Education in South Africa explores the democratization and modernization of education in South Africa analyzing the state of school leadership in South African schools from the time of the new democratic education dispensation in 1994 to the present day The book maps out what the future of education in South Africa could look like and explores the most conducive educational environments for change in South African schools It adopts a critical approach to analyzing leadership and management in the context of school governance school effectiveness teacher development multiculturalism and equity in education Contributions explore the democratization and modernization of education in South Africa through examining different perspectives achievements and challenges and also consider issues around access to technology language policy and the curriculum along with new literature on selected aspects of leadership This book will be of great interest for researchers scholars and students in the fields of educational leadership sociology of education and teacher education

Policing and Boundaries in a Violent Society Guy Lamb, 2022-01-31 This book explores how social and territorial boundaries have influenced the approaches and practices of the South Africa Police Service SAPS By means of a historical analysis of South Africa this book introduces a new concept police frontierism which illuminates the nature of the relationships between the police policing and boundaries and can potentially be used for future case study research Drawing on a wealth of research this book examines how social and territorial boundaries strongly influenced police practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary Focusing on cases of high density police operations public order policing and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization Veterinary Epidemiology Michael Thrusfield,2018-02-19 A comprehensive introduction to the role of epidemiology in veterinary medicine This fully revised and expanded edition of Veterinary Epidemiology introduces readers to the field of veterinary epidemiology The new edition also adds new chapters on the design of observational studies validity in epidemiological studies systematic reviews and statistical modelling to deliver more advanced material This updated edition begins by offering an historical perspective on the development of veterinary medicine It then addresses the full scope of epidemiology with chapters covering causality disease occurrence determinants disease patterns disease ecology and much more Veterinary Epidemiology Fourth Edition Features updates of all chapters to provide a current resource on the subject of veterinary epidemiology Presents new chapters essential to the continued advancement of the field Includes examples from companion animal livestock and avian medicine as well as aquatic animal diseases Focuses on the principles and concepts of epidemiology surveillance and diagnostic test validation and performance Includes access to a companion website providing multiple choice questions Veterinary Epidemiology is an invaluable reference for veterinary general practitioners government veterinarians agricultural economists and members of other disciplines interested in animal disease It is also essential reading for epidemiology students at both the undergraduate and postgraduate levels
