From Sacred Body to Angelic Soul Donna Spivey Ellington,2001 Through an insightful examination of popular sermons by some of the most famous preachers of the day Donna Spivey Ellington discusses the importance of Marian devotion to the religious understanding of European Christians in the late medieval and early modern periods She charts a dramatic shift of emphasis in the public portrayal of the Virgin Mary from the 15th through 17th centuries As Europe experienced the impact of printing and increased literacy the Protestant Reformation the growing development of individualism and a private sense of self and changing attitudes to women Marian devotion was also transformed The Church s portrait of the Virgin gradually became focused less on her body and more on her soul

The two reformations in the 16th century H.A.Enno Gelder,2012-12-06 This book deals with the religious aspects and consequences of the Renaissance and Humanism It is therefore advisable that these terms should first be defined to some extent By Re naissance is meant here the new element in Western European culture which became more and more evident in Italy during the 15th century and in about 1500 completely dominated the great minds in that country In the 16th century this new element was carried to the countries on the other side of the Alps where it developed vigorously during that century The new element in that culture is found in the plastic arts literature philosophy and also and this is the subject of the present study in a modified religious attitude The following chapters will show the content of this last change Problems such as what in general characterizes the Renaissance by what was it caused when did it begin and in particular whether the Renaissance forms a sharp contrast to the Middle Ages or whether it is a direct continuation of it will not be discussed here It will be clear from the above definition that I have placed first and foremost those things in the Renaissance which distinguish it from the Middle Ages

Cultural Studies ,2016-09-12 This volume claims that interdisciplinarity and translation constitute the two main challenges for cultural studies today These conceptual issues inter and trans express themselves within specific historical and cultural contexts Interdisciplinarity is linked with the ongoing process of the institutionalisation of cultural studies in national academies but also increasingly internationally comparatively and to a certain extent even globally of cultural studies of global culture Translation concerns cultural studies both as an object or product and as a subject or producer of translation processes Cultural studies is the result of translation translates and is being translated The essays in this volume therefore relate these various ongoing cultural linguistic and institutional translation processes to political and ethical issues of internationalisation and globalisation The contributions draw their originality and strength from strategically crossing disciplinary and national boundaries They deliberately ignore the question of what may be proper to cultural studies and instead problematise the notions of propriety and belonging As a reading practice cultural studies in these pages is performed through adaptations and combinations of theory and critical practice The volume should be of interest to everyone concerned with cultural studies role in promoting intellectual debate within an increasingly international and globalised public sphere
