

General guidelines on marking

In schools where several classes at the same grade are taking a progression test, we advise all teachers marking the tests to meet and discuss the mark scheme after learners have taken the test and before marking begins. This allows teachers to reach a common understanding of how to apply the mark scheme and will result in more consistent marking.

Teachers should not deduct marks for mistakes but should look for where marks can be awarded in accordance with the mark scheme. Marks are always awarded as whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).

Question	Answer	Marks
1	Notes to markers • Use the marking scale on the next page. • Award up to 5 marks for each of the three criteria. Decide on a mark for Content, Organisation and Language separately.
