WASP of the Ferry Command Sarah Byrn Rickman, 2016-03-15 WASP of the Ferry Command is the story of the women ferry pilots who flew more than nine million miles in 72 different aircraft 115 000 pilot hours for the Ferrying Division Air Transport Command during World War II In the spring of 1942 Col William H Tunner lacked sufficient male pilots to move vital trainer aircraft from the factory to the training fields Nancy Love found 28 experienced women pilots who could do the job They along with graduates of the Army s flight training school for women established by Jacqueline Cochran performed this duty until fall 1943 when manufacture of trainers ceased In December 1943 the women ferry pilots went back to school to learn to fly high performance WWII fighters known as pursuits By January 1944 they began delivering high performance P 51s 47s and 39s Prior to D Day and beyond P 51s were crucial to the air war over Germany They had the range to escort B 17s and B 24s from England to Berlin and back on bombing raids that ultimately brought down the German Reich Getting those pursuits to the docks in New Jersey for shipment abroad became these women's primary job. Ultimately more than one hundred WASP pursuit pilots were engaged in this vital movement of aircraft. International Aviation Law Ronald I. C. Bartsch AM, 2024-10-16 This is the third edition of a now renowned guide that provides an extensive account of the state of the aviation industry and the law that regulates it. This new edition revised and updated throughout focuses on environmental and sustainability considerations and includes a new chapter on innovations aimed towards meeting the 2050 Net Zero Emission targets endorsed by the International Civil Aviation Organisation ICAO and the International Air Transport Association IATA. International Aviation Law: A Practical Guide explains the international context and application of the law as it applies to commercial and recreational aviation and to the broader aviation environment. It provides a comprehensive introduction to all aspects of aviation law from criminal law to contract law to the legal duties and responsibility of aircrew and other aviation personnel including airport operators, air traffic controllers and aircraft engineers. Each area of the law is clearly explained in accessible language and supported with practical case studies to illustrate the application of the law within an operational aviation context. It also provides advice on how to avoid or minimize legal liability for those working in the aviation industry. The book is written for a very broad readership of those working within the aviation industry, those aspiring to work within it and those within the legal profession dealing with air transportation as well as students within the same industries. The third edition will additionally find favour with new readers seeking information on environmental issues and answers to the question of how the aviation sector will meet the 2050 emission targets. Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance, 2009 Identifies and describes specific government assistance opportunities such as loans, grants, counseling and procurement contracts available under many agencies and programs. Labor Relations Reporter, 1997 Includes sections: Decisions of National Labor Relations Board and Court decisions on the law of labor relations.
