|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| One weekend both my parents had to work, so I went to visit my Great Aunt          | 16  |
| Viola. Auntie lives in a stone cottage covered with mosses near the shore of a     | 31  |
| winding stream. Despite the fact that her nearest neighbor lives five miles away,  | 44  |
| Auntie has many friends.                                                           | 48  |
| When I arrived, one of her dearest friends, Jack Raspberry, was on her roof        | 62  |
| cleaning out her chimney. Auntie was standing in her driveway with her hands on    | 76  |
| her hips and her head tipped back laughing at him. Jack was covered with soot and  | 92  |
| ash, but he was good-natured enough to wave at me as I climbed out of my parent's  | 110 |
| car.                                                                               | 111 |
| "Why, good morning, Velvet!" he said.                                              | 117 |
| He stopped what he was doing and did a little dance. Everyone gasped because       | 131 |
| he bobbed and nearly tumbled off the roof. Luckily, he caught himself just in time | 146 |
| and bowed as we clapped. Aunt Viola clapped the loudest.                           | 156 |
| "Great, green crickets!" Aunt Viola shouted out. "Remember when I was just a       | 169 |
| girl, Jack? Back then I did the jitterbug on Sissy Johnson's roof."                | 181 |
| "You sure did," said Jack as he climbed down the ladder. "I've never seen          | 195 |
| anyone dance better than you, Viola."                                              | 201 |
| Auntie grinned and invited us in for tea. She served the tea in her bright yellow  | 217 |
| parlor on her finest Queen Anne china. Viola chipped her teacup, but she only      | 231 |
| shrugged and took another gulp.                                                    | 236 |
| "So," she said looking at me. "What are we going to do with ourselves this         | 251 |
| weekend, Velvet? I figured you could help me weed the garden, and then we'll get   | 266 |
| ourselves all dressed up and go to a show. When it gets dark, we can chase         | 282 |
| fireflies."                                                                        | 283 |
| Jack Raspberry looked at Auntie Viola and asked, "Don't you think you're a bit     | 297 |
| old for those activities?"                                                         | 301 |
| "Jumping jelly beans, child," Auntie exclaimed. "That's the point. I invite Velvet | 313 |
| over here on the weekends because I want to feel like a young girl again." She     | 329 |
| glanced over at me and winked.                                                     | 335 |
| "On Sunday," she whispered, "I'll teach you how to ride a horse bareback."         | 348 |
