Physically: you will correspond. This part is a bit important and should be handled with care. You will have to get your computer (and I am talking to all other users) online in the middle of the evening (approximately 10:00 PM) and stay up to receive incoming files in the morning. That's something that will make you a computer-savvy user and for this reason, computer-savvy users should be able to handle this. I will be available to help you with this.
