Discovering Media Literacy Renee Hobbs,David Cooper Moore,2013-07-16 Give digital kids a voice Today s kids are digital natives but what s the best way to help them become empowered creative and responsible communicators across different media Discover insights and strategies specific to children ages 5 12 in this guide from an acclaimed media literacy program Powerful Voices for Kids Readers will find Thought provoking lesson plans that reach students of all backgrounds and abilities Use of a wide range of technology tools including the Internet video and mobile apps combined with an emphasis on online safety and development of essential critical thinking skills Materials for teacher professional development This innovative book is equally valuable as a resource for lesson planning or for developing a full media literacy program Many professional books talk about digital and media literacy but this text addresses the complete continuum from television to technology and guides teachers to think deeply about their own preferences and beliefs as well as those of their students to develop knowledgeable informed media users and consumers for the 21st Century Kristin Ziemke Fastabend First Grade Teacher Chicago Public Schools Digital Pedagogy Senad Bećirović,2023-03-01 This book systematically approaches the topic of the relatively new field of digital pedagogy and provides valuable insights for teachers and students education policymakers leaders in education and others whose professional engagement is related to education in modern society It discusses topics including what digital pedagogy involves as well as its main characteristics and significance for the future of education the impact of the coronavirus pandemic on the teaching and learning process digital literacy and digital citizenship development of digital competencies of teachers and the reasons for and challenges of the digital transformation of education systems The findings presented in this book help education policymakers to adopt effective strategies for digitalization of educational institutions Furthermore this book enables experts involved in the development and improvement of curricula to respond well to modern challenges and to adapt them to the modern needs of students society and scientific fields This book also serves as a useful resource for pre service and in service teachers in their development of digital competencies

Disinformation, Misinformation, and Fake News in Social Media Kai Shu,Suhang Wang,Dongwon Lee,Huan Liu,2020-06-17 This book serves as a convenient entry point for researchers practitioners and students to understand the problems and challenges learn state of the art solutions for their specific needs and quickly identify new research problems in their domains The contributors to this volume describe the recent advancements in three related parts 1 user engagements in the dissemination of information disorder 2 techniques on detecting and mitigating disinformation and 3 trending issues such as ethics blockchain clickbaits etc This edited volume will appeal to students researchers and professionals working on disinformation misinformation and fake news in social media from a unique lens Media Literacy and Media Education Research Methods Pierre Fastrez,Normand Landry,2023-11-27 This handbook interrogates the foundations of media literacy and media education research from a methodological standpoint. It provides a detailed illustrated overview of key methods used in the study of media literacy and media education. Further, it reveals the diversity of this research field and organizes this diversity by using three categories of investigation: media practices, educational initiatives, and prescriptive discourses. The book offers valuable reference points and tools for exploring the range of research methods used to study media literacy and media education and how these methods connect to epistemological stances, theoretical frameworks, and research questions. It serves as a guide for researchers who wish to position themselves, reflect on the methods they use or are considering using, and compare and contrast them against alternative or complementary approaches. After reading this book, readers will be better able to identify and define the objects of study in media literacy and media education research, the preferred ways of conducting investigations, the phenomena, issues, and dimensions that these are likely to bring to light, and the knowledge that they generate. This comprehensive and up-to-date overview of the field of media literacy education research methods will be of great interest to scholars and students of education studies, media studies, media literacy, cognitive science, and communication studies. Blueprint for a Literate Nation: How You Can Help Cinthia Coletti, 2013-10. K-12 literacy rates in the United States are not as high as those in other first world countries. Halting the decline of literacy is a national effort but must start locally. This book, designed for parents, teachers, librarians, and other concerned citizens, offers practical guidance and solutions to the problem of illiteracy in the United States.

Digital Literacy for Teachers Łukasz Tomczyk, Laura Fedeli, 2022-05-26. This book shows the results of research in different countries on how to measure digital competence among future generations of teachers and facing the challenges brought by the convergence of analogue and digital media. This book provides answers to the research questions: How should the key competencies related to media pedagogy be effectively measured and compared? What is the level of digital literacy of pre-service teachers in selected countries? The individual chapters are based on a systematic review of research results from the last two decades to show trends related to changes in measurement and levels of digital competence. This book is valuable for researchers training future generations of teachers in the use of new media as well as to those trying to measure the development of the information society as well as those conducting research in the field of comparative pedagogy, including the transfer of the most effective solutions in the field of media pedagogy.
