Measurement, Judgment, and Decision Making Michael H. Situational Analysis Adele E. Clarke, 2005-03-23 This book provides a detailed and comprehensive introduction to situational analysis of qualitative data Adele E Clarke personally created the situational analysis approach no other book currently deals with it She carefully situates herself and the situational analysis approach vis vis other current approaches to grounded theory specifically and to qualitative data analysis more generally Situational analysis is unique in that it both uses and extends grounded theory it employs established coding and memoing strategies while extending the method to include three new kinds of maps and analyses of the situation focused upon in one's research This is also the first publication about using grounded theory with historical visual and discursive materials NASA Technical Paper, 1980 Design and Distribution of Late Medieval Manuscripts in England Margaret Connolly, Linne R. Mooney, 2008 New essays on late medieval manuscripts highlight the complicated network of their production and dissemination One of the most important developments in medieval English literary studies since the 1980s has been the growth of manuscript studies Long regarded as mere textual repositories and treated superficially by editors manuscripts are now acknowledged as centrally important in the study of later medieval texts The essays collected here discuss aspects of the design and distribution of manuscripts in late medieval England with a particular focus on vernacular manuscripts of the late fourteenth fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries Those in the first half consider material evidence for scribal decisions about design these range from analysis of individual codices to broader discussions of particular types of manuscripts both religious and secular Later essays look at the evidence for the production and distribution of manuscripts of specific English texts or types of text These include the major Middle English poems The Canterbury Tales and Piers Plowman as well as key religious works such as Love's Mirror Hilton's Scale of Perfection the Speculum Vitae and The Pricke of Conscience all of which survive in significant numbers of manuscripts The comparison of secular and devotional texts illuminates shared networks of production and dissemination and increases our knowledge of regional and metropolitan book production in the period before printing Contributors DANIEL W MOSSER JACOB THAISEN TAKAKO KATO SHERRY L REAMES AMELIA GROUNDS ALEXANDRA BARRATT JULIAN M LUXFORD LINNE R MOONEY MICHAEL G SARGENT JOHN J THOMPSON MARGARET CONNOLLY RALPH HANNA GEORGE R KEISER
