Big Government and Affirmative Action Jonathan Bean, 2021-10-21 David Stockman Ronald Reagan's budget director proclaimed the Small Business Administration a billion dollar waste a rathole and set out to abolish the agency His scathing critique was but the latest attack on an agency better known as the Small Scandal Administration Loans to criminals government contracts for minority fronts the classification of American Motors as a small business Whitewater and other scandals the Small Business Administration has lurched from one embarrassment to another Despite the scandals and the policy failures the SBA thrives and small business remains a sacred cow in American politics Part of this sacredness comes from the agency's longstanding record of pioneering affirmative action Jonathan Bean reveals that even before the Civil Rights Act of 1964 the SBA promoted African American businesses encouraged the hiring of minorities and monitored the employment practices of loan recipients Under Nixon the agency expanded racial preferences During the Reagan administration politicians wrapped themselves in the mantle of minority enterprise even as they denounced quotas elsewhere Created by Congress in 1953 the SBA does not conform to traditional interpretations of interest group democracy Even though the public and Congress favors small enterprise there has never been a unified group of small business owners requesting the government's help Indeed the SBA often has failed to address the real problems of Mom and Pop shop owners fueling the ongoing debate about the agency's viability Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1843 Monthly Catalog, United States Public Documents United States. Superintendent of Documents, 1965 February issue includes Appendix entitled Directory of United States Government periodicals and subscription publications September issue includes List of depository libraries June and December issues include semiannual index The Changing Policy-Making Process in Greater China Bennis Wai Yip So, Yuang-kuang Kao, 2014-04-24 This book explores how the policy making process is changing in the very volatile conditions of present day mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong It considers the overall background conditions the need to rebalance in mainland China after years of hectic economic growth governance transition and democratic consolidation in Taiwan and governance crisis in Hong Kong under a regime of uncertain legitimacy It examines the various actors in the policy making process the civic engagement of ordinary people and the roles of legislators mass media and bureaucracy and discusses how these actors interact in a range of different policy cases Throughout the book contrasts the different approaches in the three different jurisdictions and assesses how the policy making process is changing and how it is likely to change further Entrepreneurship and Innovation Tim Mazarol, Sophie Reboud, 2019-11-27 This book provides an overview of the theory practice and context of entrepreneurship and innovation at both the industry and firm level It provides a foundation of ideas and understandings designed to shape the reader's thinking and behaviour to better appreciate the role of innovation and entrepreneurship in modern economies and to recognise their own abilities in this regard The book is aimed at students studying advanced levels of entrepreneurship innovation and related fields as well as practitioners for example managers business owners As entrepreneurship and innovation are largely indivisible elements and cannot be adequately understood if studied separately the book provides the reader with an overview of these elements and how they combine to create new value in the market This edition is updated with recent international research including research and examples from Europe the US and the Asia Pacific region Pulp, Paper and Board Industry Report ,1953 Catalogue of the Public Documents of the ...
