Presidential and National Assembly Elections Report 2004, 2004 Namibia, Human Rights Report, 2005 Africa Today, 1991 Demilitarisation and Peace-building in Southern Africa: The role of the military in state formation and nation-building Peter Batchelor, Kees Kingma, Guy Lamb, 2004

Based on a collaborative research project this trilogy considers the dynamics of demilitarisation and peace building in southern Africa in the aftermath of major violent conflicts. The overall aim of the research is to support and facilitate the achievement of sustainable peace and human development in southern Africa by analysing demilitarisation and peace building processes in the region and identifying policy options and interventions for peace building. The central focus of the research is the extent to which demilitarisation following the termination of wars has contributed to broad processes of peace building in the affected region. Has the military in southern Africa downsized and refocused towards new roles? Has there been a peace dividend allowing more investment in economic and human development thereby dealing with some of the root causes of conflict? Volume III considers the role that the military has played in state formation and nation building in five southern African countries namely Botswana, Mozambique, Namibia, South Africa and Zimbabwe.
