Sadliers' Catholic Directory, Almanac and Ordo ,1888 With a full report of the various dioceses in the United States and British North America and a list of archbishops bishops and priests in Ireland Maria Petyt - A Carmelite Mystic in Wartime ,2015-07-28 Based on the discovery of an unknown Latin manuscript Maria Petyt A Carmelite Mystic in Wartime provides surprising new information about the seventeenth century Flemish mystic Maria Petyt 1623 1677 who wrote many letters to her spiritual director Michael of St Augustine The book contains a transcription of the unfortunately partly damaged manuscript an English translation of it and several articles opening up new horizons concerning the life and spirituality of Maria Petyt and her historical and religious backgrounds The authors characterize Maria Petyt as a self confident spiritual daughter with a strong political mission a zealous figure fighting side by side with Louis XIV for the catholic victory during the Dutch War and as one who lived and profoundly understood the spirituality of Teresa of Avila

The Irish Catholic Directory, Almanac and Registry with Complete Ordo in English ,1874 The Other Friars Frances Andrews,2006 A concise and accessible history of four of the monastic orders in the middle ages In 1274 the Council of Lyons decreed the end of various new orders of Mendicants which had emerged during the great push for evangelism and poverty in the thirteenth century Latin Church The Franciscans and Dominicans were explicitly excluded while the Carmelites and Austin friars were allowed a stay of execution These last two were eventually able to acquire approval but other smaller groups in particular the Friars of the Sack and Pied Friars were forced to disband This book outlines the history of those who were threatened by 1274 tracing the development of the two larger orders down to the Council of Trent and following the fragmentary sources for the brief histories of the discontinued friaries For the first time these orders are treated comparatively the volume offers a total history from their origins spirituality and pastoral impact to their music buildings and runaways FRANCES ANDREWS is Professor in Mediaeval History at the University of St Andrews Parisian Licentiates in Theology, A.D. 1373-1500. A Biographical Register Thomas Sullivan,2003-12-01 This volume presents a biographical register of the 583 members of religious orders licensed in theology at the University of Paris between 1373 and 1500 The register is preceded by a discussion of the sources used in its preparation and a list of all the clerics secular as well as religious licensed at Paris between 1373 and 1500 Appended to the register is list of those licensed arranged chronologically by religious order and an index of all the religious arranged by baptismal name The register is offered in service to historians of the medieval university and of religious life in the late middle ages as well as those interested in the professoriate of the premier theological faculty of its day The Carmelites and Antiquity Andrew Jotischky,2002-07-18 The Carmelites the only contemplative religious order to have been founded in the Crusader States first emerged as a group of hermits living on Mount Carmel a site associated with the prophet Elijah Soon after migrating to the West in the mid thirteenth century they began to develop the geographical associations into a complex historical tradition based on the claim to have been founded by the prophet Carmelite historical myths were first developed as a response to the threat of suppression but increasingly came to form the basis of a distinctive ecclesiology and mission This book which is the first full length study of the Carmelite historical legendary examines the circumstances under which the traditions were constructed describes the evolution of the traditions themselves from the thirteenth to sixteenth centuries and places them within the wider context of historical writing by religious orders and attitudes to the past more generally in the later Middle Ages
