Visual Arts Work Grace McQuilten, Chloë Powell, Marnie Badham, Kate MacNeill, Jenny Lye, 2025-02-27 This book provides the most comprehensive picture to date of work in the visual arts ecosystem in Australia In a context where artists incomes are consistently low and falling commercial galleries are financially vulnerable and public galleries face program funding challenges this book explores barriers to the economic health of the sector the challenge of improving artists and arts workers working conditions and the realities of being a creative in the twenty first century The book combines an analysis of art world economic value chains alongside alternative and emergent cultural social and political economies with new quantitative and qualitative insights from artists and arts workers With interdisciplinary methodologies and industry engagement it examines multiple and hybrid systems of value and includes the perspectives of visual artists craft artists and arts workers with diverse lived experiences Our research offers greater insight into the social cultural and political forces that underly the mediation of art to the public including an urgent emphasis on gender cultural safety and care work including the concerns of First Nations artists culturally and linguistic diverse artists and artists with disability Our approach unpacks the diversity and hybridity of art work to include practices realised through digitisation internationalisation community engagement and intersectoral partnerships

Developing Theatre in the Global South Nic Leonhardt, Christopher B. Balme, 2024-04-09 Drawing on new research from the ERC project Developing Theatre this collection presents innovative institutional approaches to the theatre historiography of the Global South since 1945 Covering perspectives from Africa Asia the Middle East and Latin America as well as Eastern Europe the chapters explore how US philanthropy international organisations and pan African festivals all contributed to the globalisation and institutionalisation of the performing arts in the Global South During the Cultural Cold War the Global North intervened in and promoted forms of cultural infrastructure that were deemed adaptable to any environment This form of technopolitics impacted the construction of national theatres the introduction of new pedagogical tools and the invention of the workshop as a format The networks of experts responsible for this foreground seminal figures both celebrated Augusto Boal Efrat Sutherland but also lesser known Albert Botbol Severino Montano Metin And who contributed to the worldwide theatrical epistemic community of the postwar years Developing Theatre in the Global South investigates the institutional factors that led to the emergence of professional theatre in the postwar period throughout the decolonising world The book s institutional and transnational approach enables theatre studies to overcome its still strong national and local focus on plays and productions and connect it to current discourses in transnational and global history

Handbook of Arts-Based Research Patricia Leavy, 2019-02-27 The handbook is heavy on methods chapters in different genres There are chapters on actual methods that include methodological instruction and examples There is also ample attention given to practical issues including evaluation writing ethics and publishing With respect to writing style contributors have made their chapters reader friendly by limiting their use of jargon providing methodological instruction when appropriate and offering robust research examples from their own work and or others The Hangover after the Handover Helena Y.W.
