Giovanni Carbone, 2015-10-30 After decades of unsatisfying performances economic growth took off in many sub Saharan states at the beginning of the 21st century More recently however the end of the commodity cycle particularly with the oil price drop and the rise of jihadist violence rocked the Emerging Africa boat Is this the beginning of the end for sustained growth in the region This Report investigates the economic impact of these new challenges upon Africa s frontier markets It shows that the positive economic trajectory of recent years is being negatively affected particularly for oil exporting countries However while more caution is needed Africa s growth prospects on the whole remain fairly good at least for now But there is an increasing need to understand the specific risks that individual countries face and the opportunities that they offer as well as to re assess the potential of each specific sector of economic activity The three largest economies in the region Nigeria South Africa and Angola are all under pressure Others including Ethiopia Mozambique and Kenya are still projected to achieve remarkable growth rates Islam, Marketing and Consumption Aliakbar Jafari, Özlem Sandikci, 2016-01-13 In recent years a critically oriented sub stream of research on Muslim consumers and businesses has begun to emerge This scholarship located both within and outside the marketing field adopts a socio culturally situated approach to Islam and investigates the complex and multifaceted intersections between Islam and markets This book seeks to reflect various unheard and emerging critical voices from within the Muslim world and provide a series of critical insights on how if and why Islam matters to marketing theory and practice It questions the existing assumptions and polarising discussions which underpin the portrayal of Islam as the other of Modernity while acknowledging that Muslims themselves are partially responsible for creating stereotyped representations of Islam and the Muslim This wide ranging and insightful collection will advance emerging critical perspectives and provide new insights that will influence the generation and application of knowledge in the context of Muslim societies It will open up fresh conversations for scholars in marketing as well as the broader humanities and social sciences

The Frontiers of Corporate Food in Egypt Marion W. Dixon,2023 This book details the development and growth of a corporate agri food system in Egypt Marion W Dixon draws on mixed methods research in Egypt between 2008 and 2012 to show how the growth of corporate food has contributed to growing food insecurity and to multiplying threats to public health from chronic and infectious diseases

The Meritocracy Trap Daniel Markovits,2019-09-10 This book flips your world upside down Daniel Markovits argues that meritocracy isn t a virtuous efficient system that rewards the best and brightest Instead it rewards middle class families who can afford huge investments in their children s education Frightening eye opening stuff The Times Books of the Year Even in the midst of runaway economic inequality and dangerous social division it remains an axiom of modern life that meritocracy reigns supreme and promises to open opportunity to all The idea that reward should follow ability and effort is so entrenched in our psyche that even as society divides itself at almost every turn all sides can be heard repeating meritocratic notions Meritocracy cuts to the heart of who we think we are But what if both up and down the social ladder meritocracy is a sham Today meritocracy has become exactly what it was conceived to resist a mechanism for the concentration and dynastic transmission of wealth and privilege across generations Upward mobility has become a fantasy and the embattled middle classes are now more likely to sink into the working poor than to rise into the professional elite At the same time meritocracy now ensnares even those who manage to claw their way to the top requiring rich adults to work with crushing intensity exploiting their expensive educations in order to extract a return All this is not the result of deviations or retreats from meritocracy but rather stems directly from meritocracy s successes This is the radical argument that The Meritocracy Trap prosecutes with rare force comprehensive research and devastating persuasion Daniel Markovits a law professor trained in philosophy and economics is better placed than most to puncture one of the dominant ideas of our age Having spent his life at elite universities he knows from the inside the corrosive system we are trapped within as well as how we can take the first steps towards a world that might afford us both prosperity and dignity
