Tourism, Philanthropy and School Tours in Zimbabwe Kathleen Smithers, 2024-08-05 This book explores the phenomena of school tours and tourism It explores tensions of authenticity and artificiality in the school site being both a place of community learning and a spectacle for tourism consumption Through the example of a school in Matabeleland North Zimbabwe the book examines the act of a school tour whose main aim is to providing fund for the school It offers a unique interdisciplinary lens that examines both the school as a tourism destination and as a site of learning By drawing on these two fields the book provides insights into the tensions inherent in a school that is also a tourism destination This book will demonstrate to readers the tensions present in tourism partnerships with schools that include some source of philanthropic funding and unpack the complexities of tourism that draws on stereotypical cultural images It explores these tensions through the lens of school leaders students teachers and tourism personnel The book provides a major and unique contribution to the field of tourism studies and education It will be of interest to students and researchers interested in tourism studies sociology education philanthropy development studies and the Global South Kanyenze: Zimbabwe: The Link Between Politics and ,2023-03-20 In this accessible and authoritative book Godfrey Kanyenze provides a comprehensive and far reaching analysis of the socio economic development in Zimbabwe in light of the expanding authoritarianism and the ongoing destruction of democratic institutions during the four decades after independence Kanyenze describes the various phases of the socio economic development starting with 1980 when the people of Zimbabwe saw their hard won independence and new democracy as a promise for a Immigrant Entrepreneurship Tamaralaiyefa Tiemo,2025-09-25 Analysing immigration around the world Immigrant Entrepreneurship Opportunities Ventures and Outcomes in a Global Market illuminates how immigrant entrepreneurs overcome barriers to mobilise resources across diverse socio economic environments Drawing on case studies from Africa the Americas Europe the Middle East and elsewhere the author explores how contemporary migration patterns informal economies and digitalisation influence entrepreneurial outcomes In emphasising entrepreneurial strategies that help adapt to exclusion and regulatory complexity this book provides a nuanced understanding of the entire field of immigrant entrepreneurship The global comparative approach taken by this book sheds light on the vital role that immigration plays in driving entrepreneurial growth in economic development around the world The result is a resource that is enlightening reading for researchers and advanced students of entrepreneurship international business and development studies Infrastructure and Growth in Zimbabwe Russell J. Cheetham,2011 Tonga Livelihoods in Rural Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker,Joshua Matanzima,2022-12-15 Based on extensive original fieldwork this book examines the complex and diverse livelihoods of Zimbabwe s Tonga people as they have developed over time including in the wake of the country s post 2000 political and economic crises Despite being endowed with natural resources the northwest region of Zimbabwe inhabited by the Tonga people is one of the most marginalised and underdeveloped parts of the country neglected by both colonial and postcolonial governments The Tonga speaking people are a minority ethnic group that settled on either side of the Zambezi River around 1100 AD and remain deeply dependent on the river for their socio economic livelihoods This book reflects on the challenges faced by the Tonga people from poor infrastructure health and education facilities to the issues caused by soil infertility and extremely low rainfall which have been exacerbated by climate change Many Tonga people were displaced by the construction of the Kariba Dam in the 1950s and their access to the region s natural resources has been restricted by successive governments Showcasing the research of Zimbabwean scholars in particular this book not only reflects on the vulnerabilities faced by the Tonga but it also looks beyond these to the livelihood practices that are thriving despite these challenges and the ways in which livelihoods intertwine with Tonga culture and society more broadly Overall this book highlights the resilience of the Tonga people in the face of years of politico economic crisis and will be an important contribution to research on livelihoods ethnic minorities and rural development in Africa Building from the Rubble

Lloyd Sachikonye, Brian Raftopoulos, 2018-09-23 Building from the Rubble is the latest volume to trace the history of Zimbabwe's labour movement following Keep on Knocking 1997 and Striking Back 2001 Even though it focuses on the period between 2000-2017 the analysis reviews the changes in trade unionism throughout the post colonial era For much of this period the unions faced massive challenges including state violence and repression funding limitations splits factionalism and problems of organising at factory level Perhaps the greatest challenge was the massive structural change in the economy Deindustrialisation and the informalisation of work decimated the potential membership of the unions and redefined the trajectory of the movement The growing precarity of work and the loss of formal employment placed the future of trade unions in great jeopardy Notwithstanding these challenges the importance of the labour movement continued to resonate with workers The editors conclude that the unions need to reconnect with their social base at the workplace and rebuild structures and alliances in the informal economy the rural sector and with residents associations and social media movements This they write is a critical post Mugabe agenda that should be seized by the labour movement at all levels from shop floor to district regional and national spaces

Global Anti-Money Laundering Regulation Nkechikwu Azinge-Egbiri, Nicholas Ryder, Ehi Eric Esoimeme, 2024-11-25 This book explores the politics of money laundering and terrorist financing ML TF regulation in several countries across Africa and the Small Island States Developed countries created the Financial Action Task Force FATF to combat ML TF globally Expectedly the FATF's standards mirror existing banking regulations within the G7 countries Yet the standards apply to all countries irrespective of the limited ML TF risks they pose to the global economy their weak pre conditions for effective regulation and their non involvement in the FATF's framing Still such countries mainly within the Global South have worked hard to amplify their compliance with the regime due to fears of the repercussions of their non compliance This collection demonstrates how the global ML TF regulation is treated as an implicitly superior legal regime where the Global South must comply irrespective of their perception of the FATF s legitimacy challenges It shows that beyond exogenous factors such as neo colonialism endogenous factors such as weak institutions and corruption undermine the compliance trajectory of the Global South Furthermore it analyses the unintended consequences of transplanting FATF standards into diverse legal and cultural contexts The volume contributes to our understanding of the challenges of transplantation from the Global North and how the Global South is steering within the constraints created by the FATF It advocates for a comprehensive understanding of the nuanced compliance challenges of developing countries It further proposes practical solutions to address them emphasizing the importance of risk based understanding accountability capacity building and coordination in achieving effective anti money laundering and counter terrorist financing measures The collection will be essential reading for researchers academics and policy makers working in financial crime regulation and international economic law

The Politics of Silence, Voice and the In-Between Aliya Khalid, Georgina Holmes, Jane L. Parpart, 2023-12-19 The Politics of Silence Voice and the In Between Exploring Gender Race and Insecurity from the Margins seeks to dismantle the deficit discourses generated through research about people as agency less and by extension objects of study The book argues that regardless of marginalisation people create spaces of liminality where they seek control over their lives by navigating the structures that exclude them Challenging the false binary of silence as violence and voice as power the book introduces the idea of an in between liminal space which is created by people to navigate conditions of oppression and move towards a politically stable and inclusive world This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of gender studies international development peace and conflict studies politics and international relations sociology and media studies It will be an important resource for courses incorporating gender feminist and postcolonial perspectives The Political Economy of China's Belt and Road Initiative in East Africa Simon

Züfle,2023-03-25 This book examines the implementation of the Belt and Road Initiative BRI in East Africa The BRI is considered China's central geopolitical and geo economic project in the era of President Xi Jinping Through this work the author aims to contribute to filling some research gaps such as the lack of depth in studies of individual BRI projects and the underconsideration of processing narratives in participating countries The guiding question is the extent to which the BRI is a political or hegemonic project of the CCP directed state civil society complex in East Africa To answer these questions databases of international organizations and policy documents are analyzed In addition the author conducts a qualitative content analysis of newspaper articles from local media houses in the countries of Ethiopia Kenya and Tanzania to examine three infrastructure projects The work illustrates that the BRI contributes to increasing connectivity in East Africa At the same time the compression of economic relations and the implementation of infrastructure projects in East Africa lead to numerous consequences and contour a hegemonic project The Grants Register 2024 Palgrave Macmillan,2023-09-23
