Romantic Dialogues and Afterlives Monika Coghén, Anna Paluchowska-Messing, 2020 Romantic writers often asserted their individuality but this assertion tended to take the form of positioning themselves in relation to other authors and literary texts Thus they implicitly acknowledged the rich network of broadly understood poetic dialogue as an important and potent source for their own creativity When in 1816 John Keats wrote Great spirits now on earth are sojourning he celebrated the originality of his contemporaries and the historical significance of his times pointing to deep interest in the hum of mighty works in all the fields of human activity to which the nations ought to listen Keats's sonnet suggests not only stimulating exchanges between poets artists and social thinkers in the same language but also the idea of transnational appreciation and dialogue The volume takes up this idea and explores the dialogues of Romantic authors within the wide scope of European and American cultures Essays by scholars from Germany Britain Bulgaria Poland Canada and the United States of America examine Romantic writers responses to their contemporaries explore their dialogues with the culture of the past and their interactions across the arts and sciences They also scrutinize the Romantics far reaching influence on later writers and artists and thus extend the network of artistic exchange to modern times The volume offers a rich tapestry of interconnections that span across time and space interlace languages and cultures and link Romantic writers and artists with their predecessors and successors across Europe and America The essays in the collection invite the reader to join ongoing dialogues between writers and their audiences of the past and present Regional Innovation Patrick Dubarle,Yali Woyessa,2016-06-01 This book provides an excellent analysis of regional innovation policy issues and developments with a wealth of examples notably from OECD countries Key policy areas such as clusters support services and higher education institutions are well documented The research methodology is founded on the experience accumulated by the authors over several decades in many different countries in the context of a world class international organisation This allows a good selection of policy relevant examples and an experienced presentation of them Jean Eric Aubert Former programme manager World Bank and OECD Handbook of Machining with Grinding Wheels Ioan D.
