Tourism and the Branded City Stephanie Hemelryk Donald, John G. Gammack, 2016-02-24 Comparing the major Pacific Rim cities of Sydney Hong Kong and Shanghai this book examines world city branding Whilst all three cities compete on the world's stage for events tourists and investment they are also at the centre of distinct film traditions and their identities are thus strongly connected with a cinematic impression Using an interdisciplinary approach this book not only analyses the city branding of these cities from the more widely researched perspectives of tourism marketing and regional development but also draws in cultural studies and psychology approaches which offer fresh and useful insights to place branding and marketing in general The authors compare and contrast qualitative and quantitative original data as well as critically analyzing current texts and debates on city branding In conclusion they argue that city branding should contribute not only to regional development and identity but also to sustainable economic well being and public happiness

Performance at the Limit Mark Jenkins, Ken Pasternak, Richard West, 2005-07-07 Performance is the central focus of every organization and yet for many how this can be achieved is an unanswered question This book takes the case of Formula 1 motorsport where the connection between performance and all elements of the organization is fundamental to success Can you imagine your organization as a Ferrari or a Jordan a Williams or a Minardi Your management team as a pit crew Your sales force as the race team and your marketing and research people as the design studio creating a Formula 1 car The case histories and examples which are examined provide both inspirational and instructional guidance to those seeking to achieve levels of performance at the limit of possibility

Alfa Romeo 2000 and 2600 Tony Bagnall, 2019-11-16 After a period of post war austerity in 1957 Alfa Romeo decided it was time to re enter the market for luxury executive class cars with a new range designed for the growing number and prosperity of potential customers Thus the first models in the new 2000 series emerged followed by the 2600 series in 1962 That they were not hugely successful although some 18 540 were manufactured between 1957 and 1966 can be attributed to a number of factors principally cost Largely ignored for many years these cars are now recognized as a significant element in Alfa Romeo's history and this book is a valuable record of their story Richly illustrated with over 200 colour and black describes the early Berlina saloon Spider convertible and Sprint coupe and their development into the 2600 series details the evolution of the 1900 based engine into the 6 cylinder 2600 engine provides a history of the SZ Sprint Zagato includes information on prototypes show specials specification tables colour schemes and production numbers and finally includes a chapter on owning a 2000 or 2600
