Life, Re-Scaled

Liliane Campos, Pierre-Louis Patoine, 2022-10-11

This edited volume explores new engagements with the life sciences in contemporary fiction poetry comics and performance The gathered case studies investigate how recent creative work reframes the human within microscopic or macroscopic scales from cellular biology to systems ecology and engages with the ethical philosophical and political issues raised by the twenty first century's shifting views of life The collection thus examines literature and performance as spaces that shape our contemporary biological imagination Comprised of thirteen chapters by an international group of academics Life Re Scaled The Biological Imagination in Twenty First Century Literature and Performance engages with four main areas of biological study Invisible scales cells microbes and mycelium Neuro medical imaging and diagnosis Pandemic imaginaries and Ecological scales The authors examine these concepts in emerging forms such as plant theatre climate change art ecofiction and pandemic fiction including the work of Jeff Vandermeer Jon McGregor Jeff Lemire and Extinction Rebellion's Red Rebel Brigade performances This valuable resource moves beyond the biological paradigms that were central to the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to outline the specificity of a contemporary imagination Life Re Scaled is crucial reading for academics scholars and authors alike as it proposes an unprecedented overview of the relationship between literature performance and the life sciences in the twenty first century The Oxford Companion to American Theatre Gerald Bordman, Thomas S. Booth,2015-07-24

 Originally published in 1981
 This study concentrates on one aspect of Victorian theatre production in the second half of the nineteenth century the spectacular which came to dominate certain kinds of production during that period
 A remarkably consistent style it was used for a variety of dramatic forms although surrounded by critical controversy
 The book considers the theories and practice of spectacle production as well as the cultural and artistic movements that created the favourable conditions in which spectacle could dominate such large areas of theatre for so many years
 It also discusses the growth of spectacle and the taste of the public for it
 Examining the influence of painting archaeology history and the trend towards realism in stage production
 An explanation of the working of spectacle in Shakespeare pantomime and melodrama is followed by detailed reconstructions of the spectacle productions of Irving s Faust and Beerbohm Tree s King Henry VIII Shakespeare at the Cineplex Samuel Crowl,2003 space.time.narrative Frank den Ouden,2016-12-05 Making exhibitions is a collaborative art producing is a multi layered unity of ideas and objects of invention and manifestation of content and form However there is an antagonistic dimension to it because content and form are traditionally represented by the entirely different realms of curator and designer Future successful developments in exhibition making are dependent on whether this gap of antagonism can be bridged space time narrative calls for a paradigmatic shift of focus It puts forward a unique approach breaking down traditional barriers and offering a wide ranging theoretical context redefining and expanding the parameters and the dynamics of the exhibition format in terms of an open narrative environment which at its roots displays deep similarities with performance on stage or installation in urban and rural space The book breaks new ground by looking at the exhibition as a cultural format firstly within a great sweep of the arts in general weaving a web of philosophical museological linguistic and media theoretical references which expands the contextual field of the profession It then offers unique and important insights from within in extreme close up by bringing together interviews with six of the leading exhibition designers who discuss the dynamics of the medium its interactive dimensions the soft parameters of the exhibition and how to get to grips with the format as a complex narrative space in which the public takes part Curator and designer should reposition themselves professionally at the heart of the axis which divides or connects content and form
