Dance of the Happy Shades Alice Munro, 2000 Fifteen short stories set in typical Alice Munro territory the farms and semi rural towns of south western Ontario

My Best Stories Alice Munro, 2009-10-06 My Best Stories is a dazzling selection of stories seventeen favourites chosen by the author from across her distinguished career The stories are arranged in the order in which they were written allowing even the most devoted Munro admirer to discover how her work developed Royal Beatings shows us right away how far we are from the romantic world of happy endings The Albanian Virgin smashes the idea that all of her stories are set in B C or in Ontario s Alice Munro Country A Wilderness Station breaks short story rules by transporting us back to the 1830s and then jumping forward more than a hundred years And the final story The Bear Came Over the Mountain which was adapted into the film Away from Her leads us far beyond the turkey plucking world of young girls into unflinching old age Every story in this selection is superb It is a book to read and reread very slowly savouring each separate story This collection of small masterpieces deserves a place in every book lover s home

Nature and Gender in Alice Munro's Short Story "Boys and Girls" Aleksandra Dediukina, 2024-09-09 Seminar paper from the year 2024 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 3 <http://www.uni-jena.de> English and American Studies course The Canadian Short Story language English abstract This paper examines Alice Munro s short story Boys and Girls through the lens of ecofeminism The theoretical part provides the key principles of ecofeminism as a literary theory and in the analysis part their realisation in the story is explored Ecofeminist literary criticism is a branch of literary criticism that first of all uses the principles of feminist literary criticism and ecocriticism but is not restricted to them Among other approaches with which ecofeminist literary criticism closely interact there are radical environmental philosophy critical animal studies and radical economic and political theories about globalization economics ecology and politics Gaard 2010 Historically ecofeminist literary criticism stems from ecofeminism as a movement with a two decade history of activism and theoretical work Ecofeminism first of all operates on the premise that in the male dominated world both women and nature have long experienced discrimination Hierarchical thinking in establishing relationships among humans brought about another form of inequality towards nature This defines the angle from which ecofeminist literary criticism approaches literary texts the scholars seek to register two binary cross connected oppositions male female and nature culture and expose a fallacious and dangerous character of this dualism Open
