in Medicine Anne Digby, 2006 This is an innovative investigation of pluralism in health care Using both extensive archival material and oral histories it examines relationships between indigenous healing missionary medicine and western biomedicine The book includes the different regions within South Africa although focusing in most detail on the Cape the earliest area of white settlement In a wide ranging survey the division in medicine between western and indigenous medicine is analysed through an exploration of the evolving practices of healers missionaries doctors and nurses The book considers the extent to which there was a strategic crossing of boundaries in the construction of hybrid practices by these practitioners and the extent to which patients pursued health by sampling diverse care options Starting with missionary penetration during the early nineteenth century the volume outlines interventions by the colonial state in medicine and public health and the continued resilience of indigenous healing in the face of this The book ends by relating past to present in scrutinising the legacy of historical structures including those of the apartheid state for current health care and in briefly discussing the huge challenges that the HIV Aids pandemic poses in impacting on them The book thus provides an inclusive history of medicine for the New South Africa

Juta's Manual of Nursing Anne Young, C. F. Van Niekerk, S Mogotlane, 2003 The basics of fundamental and general nursing science are presented in this health resource for auxiliary enrolled and registered general nurses A strong community nursing focus infuses the outcome based teachings and questions to stimulate further discussion Practical information on nursing in South Africa is provided including working in the legal framework managing the challenges of nursing in a culturally diverse society and dealing with patients suffering from HIV and AIDS Medical teachings on the use of oxygen temperature regulation mobility and skin integrity complement the ethical discussions

Women: Wise, Optimistic, Motivating, Empowering & Nurturing Letlhokwa George Mpedi, 2024-08-05 Women's Day celebrated annually on the 9th of August commemorates the 1956 women's march against the discriminatory pass laws during the apartheid era It was on this day that women from across the nation were led by Helen Joseph Lillian Ngoyi Rahima Moosa and Sophia Williams De Bruyn to the Union Buildings to protest against the oppressive pass laws As SA History describes it The 1956 Women's March played a vital role in women becoming more visible participants in the anti apartheid struggle That is not to say that women were not already playing an instrumental role in the struggle But as history has long demonstrated this is often a forgotten aspect of our narrative This unfortunate omission underscores the importance of reclaiming and preserving these stories weaving them into the broader narrative of societal progress As we reflect on their fight and the impact of their war cry wathint abafazi wathint imbokodo uza kufa which translates to when you strike the women you strike a rock you will be crushed you will die we are given pause to reflect on the progress made in the fight for equality since then We now live in a democratic society where many of our aspirations have been realised Yet there is much we have not managed to achieve To say that South Africa has achieved equality would be a fallacy A grim reality is that in many aspects we have failed women Pay parity underrepresentation in industries unequal access to opportunities disturbing levels of violence sexism and misogyny persist unabated These issues cast a long shadow over our aspirations as a nation This book aims to shed light on these issues while honouring the progress made and highlighting the road ahead Official Year Book of the Union South Africa.
