Travel Writing for Tourism and City Branding Charlie Mansfield, Jasna Potočnik Topler, 2022-12-30 Travel Writing for Tourism and City Branding is an insightful expert led book which provides tourism students with a practice based approach to producing researched literary travel writing on an urban destination using the writing process as a research tool in itself. The book is scientifically supported with full academic references for researchers. On a global basis city councils and destination managers are seeking new ways to commission and sponsor professional content authors as part of place branding projects for tourism development. Given the increasing prevalence of such content within the tourism industry this book provides a cohesive overview of literary travel writing presenting it as an enquiry process that can be applied by writer researchers to spaces that have value to them. Travel writing is presented as a methodological practice that researchers can learn and apply to their own projects both in academic settings and in commercial city branding. Examples of literary travel writing are carefully examined throughout and their affects refracted through further work. Enriched with a wealth of case studies chapters are presented in such a way that readers can take the work as a model for their own projects. This informative and practical volume will be of great interest to students of tourism marketing destination marketing place branding and travel writing as well as current creators of commercial tourism marketing content.

Cecil and Lois An Old Love Story

Revisited Cecil Smith, Lois Bumbalough-Molina, 2021-03-16 True love endures This love story has taken over fifty seven years to tell It began with the hot fiery passion of youth the separation of our lovers because of time and space and then the rekindling of that love from the embers found in the ashes of that fire The story starts in the coastal town of Watsonville California where these lovers met at Watsonville High School in 1960 Anyone who was alive in the fifties and early sixties really miss those good old days We did not realize at that time how great they were We enjoyed simple pleasures Cruising on a Saturday night drive in movies and many nights sitting at the beach listening to the radio We were innocent but not prudish mischievous but not mean respectful to our parents the elderly and those in authority We were not angels but neither were we devils So from those days which have taken on an idealistic perspective we progress to real life as grown ups in the eighties and nineties This double autobiography follows the lives of Cecil and Lois through marriages divorces births deaths and all the myriad of unexpected events that came along the way And at last we reach retirement after all those years of employment What we hoped for does not turn out exactly like we thought Again unexpected events and surprises await us But true love endures

The review of the less favoured areas scheme

Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee, 2009-06-04 In this report The Review of the Less Favoured Areas Scheme HL Paper 98 the European Union Committee calls for the swift adoption of reforms to the EU Less Favoured Areas LFA scheme a method of distributing EU agricultural funding to disadvantaged areas where farming land might otherwise be abandoned The report stresses that the justification for the LFA scheme is to maintain farming in marginal areas where farming activity generates benefits for the environment and landscape rather than to compensate for regional economic hardship
