Steels, 2015-11-24 Massive Open Online Courses known as MOOCs have arisen as the logical consequence of marrying long distance education with the web and social media MOOCs were confidently predicted by advanced thinkers decades ago They are undoubtedly here to stay and provide a valuable resource for learners and teachers alike This book focuses on music as a domain of knowledge and has three objectives to introduce the phenomenon of MOOCs to present ongoing research into making MOOCs more effective and better adapted to the needs of teachers and learners and finally to present the first steps towards social MOOCs which support the creation of learning communities in which interactions between learners go beyond correcting each other's assignments Social MOOCs try to mimic settings for humanistic learning such as workshops small choirs or groups participating in a Hackathon in which students aided by somebody acting as a tutor learn by solving problems and helping each other The papers in this book all discuss steps towards social MOOCs their foundational pedagogy platforms to create learning communities methods for assessment and social feedback and concrete experiments These papers are organized into five sections background the role of feedback platforms for learning communities experiences with social MOOCs and looking backwards and looking forward Technology is not a panacea for the enormous challenges facing today's educators and learners but this book will be of interest to all those striving to find more effective and humane learning opportunities for a larger group of students

Resources in Education ,1997 Developing an All-School Model for Elementary Integrative Music Learning Carol E. Reed-Jones, 2014-03 The purpose of this study was to investigate the potential for increasing informal music making in elementary school culture and create a model of such music making Precedence for this model can be found in the literature of ethnomusicology educational psychology and learning theory multicultural music education and cultural anthropology Literature from four distinct traditions and contexts of music making in integrative sociocultural contexts sub Saharan African ngoma and Community Music as manifested in New Orleans second lines old time music and dance and summer camp music making was parsed with a philosophical lens to determine and assess possible areas of intersection between these four participatory cultures and North American public school culture Each of these five areas was examined through a comprehensive review of literature to define their salient characteristics These characteristics were sorted to determine commonalities between areas and the zones of intersection became the basis for a speculative model of integrative music learning featuring the inclusion of musical opportunities and interludes throughout the school day thus taking school music beyond the confines of the music room Instruction in music classes would still continue enhanced in this model by supplemental learning opportunities inspired by the informal learning of traditional world musics the participatory practice of New Orleans second line parades old time music and dance and summer camp music culture This model of integrative learning is also informed by current educational best practices such as child centered learning peer tutoring experiential learning and multicultural perspectives It acknowledges the diversity of traditions consulted while aiming for the unity in their seemingly disparate disciplines Five universal characteristics were uncovered in the search for areas of intersection between North American elementary school culture child culture ngoma music making and Community Music style music making in New Orleans old time music and dance and summer camp contexts a Song b play c informal learning as evidenced by oral tradition peer tutoring self learning d kinesthetic learning and e contextualized learning as evidenced in the sociocultural uses of music and situated learning This model strives for the enactment of school music as a vital and integral part of daily school culture

Coppola,2025 Scenes from the music video unravel quickly under a piano loop and an 808 drum groove The figure raps from Jesus center seat of a long table depicting DaVinci s The Last Supper He lies in a pile of cash as fawning women count it all around him Cloaked in white he stands among a sea of men dressed in black Sit down he repeatedly commands while he stubbornly stands Be humble The all caps title of Kendrick Lamar s hit song HUMBLE leaves no question that his song is or should be about humility Yet many would probably write it off as an audacious display of bravado instead His opening question wicked or weakness points precisely to this contradiction a socially constructed binary between arrogance and humility A Black man who projects strength resilience and pride is judged as arrogant wicked But to be humble is to be servile weak MENC Handbook of Research on Music Learning: Volume 1: Strategies Richard Colwell,Peter R. Webster,2011-10-26 The MENC
