Richard Colwell, Peter R. Webster

Music Learning Review:

MENC Handbook of Research on Music Learning Richard Colwell, Peter R. Webster, 2011-11-23 Summarizes the latest research on music learning focusing on the profession's empirical conceptual knowledge of how students gain competence in music at various ages in different contexts Making Music Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music (Great Britain), 1996 MENC Handbook of Research on Music Learning: Volume 1: Strategies Richard Colwell, Peter R. Webster, 2011-10-26 The MENC Handbook of Research on Music Learning Volume 1 Strategies brings together the best and most current research on methods for music learning focusing squarely on the profession's empirical and conceptual knowledge of how students gain competence in music at various ages and in different contexts The collection of chapters written by the foremost figures active in the field takes a broad theoretical perspective on current critical areas of research including music development music listening and reading motivation and self-regulated learning in music music perception and movement The book's companion volume Applications builds an extensive and solid position of practice upon the frameworks and research presented here Throughout both volumes in this essential set focus is placed on the musical knowledge and musical skills needed to perform create understand reflect on enjoy value and respond to music A key point of emphasis rests on the relationship between music learning and finding meaning in music and as music technology plays an increasingly important role in learning today chapters move beyond exclusively formal classroom instruction into other forms of systematic learning and informal instruction Either individually or paired with its companion Volume 2 Applications this indispensable overview of this growing area of inquiry will appeal to students and scholars in Music Education as well as front-line music educators in the classroom The New Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning Richard Colwell, Carol Richardson, 2002-04-18 Featuring chapters by the world's foremost scholars in music education and cognition this handbook is a convenient collection of current research on music teaching and learning This comprehensive work includes sections on arts advocacy music and medicine teacher education and studio instruction among other subjects making it an essential reference for music education programs The original Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning published in 1992 with the sponsorship of the Music Educators National Conference MENC was hailed as a welcome addition to the literature on music education because it serves to provide definition and unity to a broad and complex field Choice This new companion volume again with the sponsorship of MENC explores the significant changes in music and arts education that have taken place in the last decade Notably several chapters now incorporate insights from other fields to shed light on multi-cultural music education gender issues in music education and non-musical outcomes of music education Other chapters offer practical information on maintaining musicians' health training music teachers and evaluating music education programs Philosophical issues such as musical cognition the philosophy of research theory curriculum and educating musically are also explored in relationship to policy issues In addition to surveying the literature each chapter considers the significance of the research and provides suggestions for future study Covering a broad range of topics and addressing the issues of music education at all age levels from early childhood to motivation and self regulation this handbook is an invaluable resource for music teachers researchers and scholars The Oxford Handbook of Social Media and Music Learning Janice L. Waldron, Stephanie Horsley, Kari K. Veblen, 2020 The Oxford Handbook of Social Media and Music Learning provides fascinating insights into the ways in which social media musical participation and musical learning are increasingly entwined

Music in the Human Experience Donald A. Hodges, 2019-10-07 Music in the Human Experience An Introduction to Music Psychology Second Edition is geared toward music students yet incorporates other disciplines to provide an explanation for why and how we make sense of music and respond to it cognitively physically and emotionally All human societies in every corner of the globe engage in music Taken collectively these musical experiences are widely varied and hugely complex affairs How did human beings come to be musical creatures How and why do our bodies respond to music Why do people have emotional responses to music Music in the Human Experience seeks to understand and explain these phenomena at the core of what it means to be a human being New to this edition Expanded references and examples of non Western musical styles Updated literature on philosophical and spiritual issues Brief sections on tuning systems and the acoustics of musical instruments A section on creativity and improvisation in the discussion of musical performance New studies in musical genetics Greatly increased usage of explanatory figures

Contexts for Music Learning and Participation Andrea Creech, Maria Varvarigou, Susan Hallam, 2020-07-27 This book sets out a contemporary perspective on music education highlighting complex intersections between informal non formal and formal practices and contexts At a time when the boundaries between music learning and participation are increasingly blurred this volume is distinctive in challenging a siloed approach to understanding the diverse international music education landscape Instead the book proposes a multi layered continuum of practices that can be applied across a range of formal informal or non formal concepts to support the development of musical possible selves It challenges existing conceptions of learning in music education in part by drawing on research in adult learning but also by considering the contexts in which learning takes place and the extent to which this learning can be classified as formal informal or non formal

Learning and Teaching in the Music Studio Juan Ignacio Pozo, María Puy Pérez Echeverría, Guadalupe López-Íñiguez, José Antonio Torrado, 2022-04-26 This book advocates for a radical change in music teaching and learning methods allowing for a break from the traditional conservatory model still in use in many classrooms The product of twenty years of interdisciplinary work by musicians music teachers and psychologists the book proposes to place the focus of music education on the students themselves and on their mental and physical activity with the aim of helping them to manage their own goals and emotions This alternative is based on a new theoretical framework as well as numerous real concrete examples of how to put it into practice with students of different ages and in different environments This book focuses primarily on teaching instrumental music but its content will be useful for any teacher student musician or researcher interested in improving music education in any environment whether formal or informal in which it takes place Chapters 3 4 6 and 18 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link.springer.com

International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-09-04 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts the Handbook synthesizes existing research literature helps define the past and contributes to shaping the substantive and methodological future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the lived practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each centering on a major area or issue in arts education research These areas include History of arts education curriculum evaluation cultural centers appreciation composition informal learning child culture creativity the body spirituality and technology The individual chapters address cross cultural research related to the central theme of the section from the perspectives of the particular arts discipline Interludes provide reflective thoughts on the theme
