What Happens To Moshe In The Beginning Of Chapter 1:

The Beginnings of Ladino Literature Olga Borovaya, 2017-03-13 Moses Almosnino 1518 1580 arguably the most famous Ottoman Sephardi writer and the only one who was known in Europe to both Jews and Christians became renowned for his vernacular books that were admired by Ladino readers across many generations While Almosnino's works were written in a style similar to contemporaneous Castilian Olga Borovaya makes a strong argument for including them in the corpus of Ladino Judeo Spanish literature Borovaya suggests that the history of Ladino literature begins at least 200 years earlier than previously believed and that Ladino like most other languages had more than one functional style With careful historical work Borovaya establishes a new framework for thinking about Ladino language and literature and the early history of European print culture

The World of the Russian Peasant Ben Eklof, Stephen P. Frank, 2023-10-13 First published in 1990 The World of the Russian Peasant is designed to provide a wide ranging survey of new developments in Russian peasant studies Editors Eklof and Frank paint a broad picture of what life was like for the vast majority of Russia's population before 1917 Individual authors treat the intricacies of the village community and peasant commune social structure the everyday life and labour of peasant women the impact of migration the spread of education and peasant art religion justice and politics The result is a portrait of a people greatly influenced by rapid and radical changes in the world yet seeking to maintain control over their lives and their communities This is a must read for students of Russian history Russian peasantry and rural sociology

Minorities in the Middle East Mordechai Nisan, 2015-10-02 The struggle for independence by minorities in the Middle East those people who are non Arab or non Muslim is affecting the political climate around the world War and terrorism are threatening the safety of many minority communities and repression of minorities still remains standard state policy in some countries This updated and revised edition of the 1991 original provides a wealth of historical and political detail for all the indigenous peoples of the Middle East Pressed to persist in a threatening environment these minorities Kurds Berbers Baluchi Druzes Alawites Armenians Assyrians Maronites Sudanese Christians Jews Egyptian Copts and others share similar experiences and have been known to cooperate for shared goals Important events and new trends regarding the welfare of these groups are covered and numerous oral histories add to the new edition Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

The Material of World History Tina Mai Chen, David S. Churchill, 2015-03-27 This volume considers the confluence of World History and historical materialism with the following guiding question in mind given developments in the field of historical materialism concerned with the intersection of race gender labour and class why is it that within the field of World History historical materialism has been marginalized precisely as World History orients toward transnational socio cultural phenomenon micro studies or global histories of networks Answering this question requires thinking in an inter related manner about both the development of World History as a discipline and the place of economic determinism in historical materialism This book takes the position that historical materialism as applied to the field of World History needs to be more open to the methodological diversity of the materialist tradition and to refuse narrowly deterministic frameworks that have led to marginalization of materialist cultural analysis in studies of global capitalism At the same time World History needs to be more self critical of the methodological diversity it has welcomed through a largely inclusionary framework that allows the material to be considered separately from cultural social and intellectual dimensions of global processes The Green Line Robert C. Cottrell,2005 Discusses the territorial partition between the Jewish state of Israel and its Arab neighbors which came to be known as the Green Line In turn these Green Line boundaries or armistice lines came to be viewed by the world community and the combatants themselves as the border The Jews : Their History, Culture, and Religion Louis Finkelstein,1960 The Binding of Isaac, Religious Murders & Kabbalah Lippman Bodoff,2005 In a series of evocative groundbreaking articles the author analyzes the Biblical and Rabbinic basis for what surely are now some of the most hotly debated topics in Jewish religious thought today These include how the traditional interpretation of the Binding of Isaac has been misapplied in both Christian theology and Jewish martyrology and how the centuries long and newly resurgent belief in mysticism and messianism in kabbalah and Hasidism has distorted classical Judaism and thwarted its national and cultural development The author counters the arguments of those who see Judaism s and the world s newfound obsession with mysticism and kabbalah as a natural outgrowth of a progressive trend within rabbinic Judaism and warns of the impending danger of rejecting the very core of Jewish thought and opinion as it was expounded in the Torah and classical Jewish tradition the Oral Law Each section of this magnificent work will give the reader new insights into how different aspects of Judaism have evolved and why they have often been in contention with each other Nor is he afraid to deal with some of the supercharged issues within Judaism such as what are the underlying premises of Jewry s claim to the Divinely Promised Land And has this claim been affected by its failure to pursue an active program of nationalism These highly acclaimed articles have been gleaned from today s leading Jewish journals and have stood the test of time They contain valuable source material and are a ready reference to the many historical and religious topics that are the focus of discussion across all main Jewish denominations

Righteous or Not Mordecai Paldi,2025-07-14 Since 1963 Yad Vashem the Israeli national Holocaust remembrance museum has acted to identify and honor non Jewish rescuers of Jews during the Holocaust This book discusses some of the issues raised in the debates whether to accord the title of Righteous Among the Nations to candidates of this honor based on established criteria that led to the approval of some and non acceptance of others History of Vegetarianism and Veganism Worldwide (1970-2022) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi,2022-03-10 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographic index 48 photographs and illustrations mostly color Free of charge in digital PDF format Empire from the Margins Martin Jacobs,2025-07-15 The writings of three early modern Jewish historians highlight the divided allegiances of a Jewish diaspora living in and between the Spanish and Ottoman empires In 1492 the year that marked the start of Spain's transatlantic expansion the Spanish monarchs expelled their Jewish subjects and triggered a mass Jewish migration to the lands of the Ottoman Empire But while the rise of these rival empires had tremendous impact on the Jewish population's geography the historical accounts of contemporary Jews have remained peripheral to the study of early modern imperialism In Empire from the Margins Martin Jacobs seeks to understand how the history of empires appears through the lens of marginalized communities and to explore how Jews responded to Spanish and Ottoman imperial expansion He approaches this history through the Hebrew chronicles of three sixteenth and seventeenth century Jewish authors Elijah Capsali of Crete Joseph ha Kohen of Genoa and Joseph Sambari of Cairo all lived in early modern hubs with global connections and in unusual detail for premodern Jewish historians they described how the Spanish and Ottoman empires redrew the political cultural and religious map of the Mediterranean region while simultaneously transforming the transatlantic world As Jews these writers belonged to an ethno religious minority within the Mediterranean basin where the Spanish and Ottoman empires were centered and from here they expressed marginalized views on the Spanish and Ottoman regimes At the same time these Jewish authors belonged to Jewish networks that transcended imperial boundaries and they voiced conflicting loyalties between different authorities and cultures And Jacobs shows that in writing about the Spanish and Ottoman expansion these authors also grappled with the Jews precarious position in their host societies and their own multilayered identities Their shifting positionalities illuminate the divided allegiances of a Jewish diaspora living in and between competing empires
