Post-apartheid South Africa Daniel du Plessis,2025-07-05 The book provides a reflective account of the evolution of the territorial governance structures and processes in South Africa over a period of 30 years after the transition to a post apartheid society in 1994 It also considers the role and influence of these changing governance institutions and processes and their associated outputs in the form of policies and plans on several priority dimensions of urban spatial transformation The synthesis of the experiences and lessons learnt provides the bases for contemplating important future focus areas for territorial governance such as spatial transformation towards smart cities an African perspective for future South African cities and transitioning towards a streamlined integrated territorial governance system The lessons and experiences are not only of local significance in South Africa but also globally in countries and regions faced with territorial governance and spatial transformation challenges South African Journal of Science ,1999 Exploring decolonising themes in SA sport history Francois Johannes Cleophas,2018-01-01 In an effort to understand how the absences of the colonial subject in sport were engineered and how colonial narratives became fixed in the literature and minds of South Africans Exploring Decolonising Themes in SA Sport History Issues and Challenges attempts a full scale restructuring and rewriting of the history of sport in South Africa to include black South Africans and thereby places them on the forefront of a colonial history The book includes the articulations of academic researchers professionals and retired sportspeople who were requested to explore their unique areas of interest in sport from the perspective of themes in South African sport history They place themselves at the centre of discourses that dispel myths that blacks had no sport significance prior to 1994 The book ultimately challenges this spirit of the past where there was only one narrative a white male sport tradition Rather than adapting past colonial and apartheid narratives this work seeks to fundamentally replace and supersede them Lifestyle,
