Fymat, Joachim Kapalanga, 2017-03-07 For various economic and political reasons many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development However the presence of intellectual islands scattered across the continent gives hope that this is only a transient situation on the cusp of undergoing a profound and beneficial change For this reason the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to catalyse and contribute to this needed evolution Its mission is to contribute to Africa's economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa's third annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science research and education in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education epidemic diseases with high mortality promoting women's interest in science careers fostering youth development with science education The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science research and education in Africa Oversea Education, 1960

Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Toyin Falola, Emmanuel M. Mbah, 2023-08-29 Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Gender Religion and Ethno cultural Identities explores the changing dynamics of identities in Africa with a focus on gender ethno cultural and religious identity Toyin Falola and Emmanuel M Mbah argue that because identity defines who we are as individuals or groups studies on African identities must focus on understanding the changing dynamics in the socio economic and political spheres in the continent These chapters cover subjects such as women's career identity gender roles and knowledge childlessness ethnocentrism and democracy cultural identity through theater Black identity in the diaspora and diasporic consciousness Using existing scholarship the chapters in this edited volume challenge our understanding of what identity entails and provide new discussions on the hitherto politicized historiography of some identities in Africa East African Agricultural and Forestry Journal, 1994 Body Composition Assessment

Watson, Lei Xie, Matthew J. Etchells, 2018-07-01 Cultural Impact on Conflict Management in Higher Education shares information regarding conflict management and resolution in higher education from a global perspective In this book

we introduced many conflict resolution methods from different regions in the world You can borrow some successful strategies and examine the differences and similarities between contexts The book shares a conflict resolution model which may direct the reader to start thinking about addressing and managing conflicts from different levels of organizations This book is a collective work of authors coming from all over the world We chose higher education as the context because it is a place where diverse thoughts perspectives and people come together Because of the potential richness of diversity on a college campus the opportunity for conflicts occurs Managing conflict does not work when there is a one way only approach model for addressing conflict Some conflict resolution encompasses multiple dimensions a one s personal beliefs or beliefs about an issue b an individual s personal history in terms of how the conflict was perceived as something to be discussed or not c work culture of the conflict where if one has a conflict the person or unit is messing up or there is a problem person d the unconscious strategies of face saving trying to maintain one s image present e social hierarchies or relationships and f the diversity dimensions and issues that may be present Resources in Education ,1998 Sustainability in Food Consumption and Food Security József H.c. Popp,Zoltán Lakner,Judit Oláh,2020-12-15 The transformation of food chains towards sustainability in food consumption and food security is a global issue connected with the global challenges of poverty reduction employment and urbanization Combating malnutrition undernutrition and micronutrient deficiencies as well as overweight and obesity is an increasing problem The main topics to be examined are the following Ensuring sustainable food production land and sea sustainable diets and sustainable communities including issues for agricultural transformation in face of increasing competition for land use promoting healthy food systems and increasing the focus on nutrition with multiple implications for diet quality vulnerable groups and informed choice biotechnology could play an important role in climate change mitigation e g nutrient efficient plants and adaptation e g drought tolerant plants renewable energies biodegradable products rural development and global food security identifying the means to promote resilience including resilience in ecosystems and in international markets responding to climate change and other environmental and social change The focus should also cover issues for vulnerable groups such as mothers and children the elderly patients and migrants to understand the general aspects of consumer behavior Sustainability related to product standards and reactions of consumers to these standards are also of great importance
