14 June Zimsec Statements Of Entry:

United Nations Statement of Treaties and Agreements, Registered Or Filed and Recorded with the Secretariat ,2007

Zimbabwe's Trajectory V. Masunungure,2020-11-11 At Independence in 1980 Julius Nyerere called Zimbabwe the jewel of Africa and cautioned its new leaders not to tarnish it Tragically they paid no heed to Africa s esteemed elder statesmen Arguably and only if one ignores the carnage of Gukurahundi the first decade was a developmental one with resources being used prudently to benefit the formerly disadvantaged majority population However the 1990s witnessed a transition from a developmental to a predatory leadership which saw Zimbabwe cross the millennial line in crisis where it has remained ever since While many African countries have moved forward over the last three decades Zimbabwe has gone relentlessly backwards save for the four year interregnum of the tripartite coalition government 2009 2013 Virtually all development indicators point in the wrong direction and the crisis of poverty unemployment and the erosion of health education and other public goods continues unabated The imperatives of political survival and power politics supersede those of sound economics and public welfare Moreover unless good politics are conjoined with a sound people first policy the country will continue sliding downhill Zimbabwe s Trajectory tells the story of the country s post independence dynamics and its recent descent into becoming one of the three most unhappy countries in the world Zimbabwe Elections Observer Mission Report

Comrades Beyond the Cold War Tycho van der Hoog,2025-02-06 North Korea was an important player in the decolonisation of Africa Freedom fighters across the continent received vital assistance from Pyongyang and almost all southern African independence leaders travelled to the North Korean capital at some point in search of support This alliance has continued into the twenty first century with African postcolonial governments throwing a lifeline to Pyongyang s increasingly isolated economy by hiring North Korean companies despite United Nations sanctions Tycho van der Hoog examines the relations between victorious southern African liberation movements and North Korea from the 1960s to the present. He explains why African presidents sang and danced at parties in Pyongyang and why North Korean books were translated into Swahili and Afrikaans. He reveals how African soldiers were trained in guerrilla warfare by North Korean instructors and how North Korean labourers construct monuments in Africa in the shape of AK 47s. And he explores the question of how revolutionary regimes motivated by a need for survival work together to defy the global order. Based on extensive research across four continents including recently disclosed African liberation archives and Korean diplomatic cables, this innovative study is the first book on African North Korean relations. *Report of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law on the Work of Its ...
