14 Rdo Calendar Sa:

Calendrical Calculations Nachum Dershowitz, Edward M. Reingold, 2008 Expanded coverage includes generic cyclical calendars astronomical lunar calendars and the Korean Vietnamese Aztec and Tibetan calendars Tibetan Lives Peter Richardus, 2014-03-18 In the early years of the 20th century control over Tibet was contested by three major empires those of China Russia and Britain The imperial powers and those who came in their wake missionaries scholars traders and soldiers employed local staff to assist in their dealings with the Tibetans and these employees were in the vanguard of Tibet's encounter with the outside world Yet they have been largely forgotten by history and most of the knowledge and understandings that they gained have been lost It was left to a Dutchman Johan van Manen and hence an outside observer of the British imperial system to preserve the impressions of three who served on the periphery of the imperial system The three autobiographies that make up this book crowded with ethnographical sociological and historico religious data offer a unique insight into the world of the intermediary class In addition to being interesting and entertaining they are an important contribution to our understanding of the history of Tibet and its opening up to cultures beyond its own International Congress Calendar, 1996 Official Gazette Philippines, 2008 Moonbeams of Mahamudra Dakpo Tashi Namgyal, 2019-03-12 A new translation of Tibet's most important manual for Mah mudr view and meditation This classic Buddhist work written in the sixteenth century comprehensively presents the entire scope of the Tibetan Kagyu Mah mudr tradition These profound yet accessible instructions focus on becoming familiar with the nature of one's mind as the primary means to realize ultimate reality and thus attain buddhahood Dakpo Tashi Namgyal's manual for the view and practice of Mah mudr is widely considered the single most important work on the subject systematically introducing the view and associated meditation techniques in a progressive manner Moonbeams of Mah mudr along with the Ninth Karmapa Wangchuk Dorje's Dispelling the Darkness of Ignorance are to this day some of the most studied texts on Mah mudr in the Kagyu monasteries throughout Tibet and the Himalayas Elizabeth M Callahan a renowned translator of classical Kagyu literature has provided new translations of these two texts along with ancillary materials and annotations making this a genuine resource for both scholars and students of Tibetan Buddhism This historic contribution therefore offers the necessary tools to properly study and apply the Mah mudr teachings in a modern context Tibetan Ritual Jose Ignacio Cabezon, 2009-12-08 This is the first scholarly collection to focus on this important subject Unique in its historical geographical and disciplinary breadth this book brings together eleven essays by an international cast of scholars working on ritual texts institutions and practices in the greater Tibetan cultural world Tibet Nepal Bhutan and Mongolia Water-supply Paper, 1940 Divine Knowledge Brian Gregory Baumann, 2008 In an original and compelling examination of traditional mathematics this comprehensive study of the anonymous Manual of Mongolian Astrology and Divination published by A Mostaert in 1969 takes on the fundamental problem of the post enlightenment categorization of knowledge in particular the inherently problematic realms of religion and science as well as their subsets medicine ritual and magic In the process of elucidating the rhetoric and logic shaping this manual the author reveals not only the intertwined intellectual history of Eurasia from Greece to China but also dismantles many of the discourses that have shaped its modern interpretations

Soundings in Tibetan Medicine International Association for Tibetan Studies. Seminar, 2007 This collection of studies on the anthropology and history of Tibetan medicine provides fascinating new insights into both dynamic developments and historical continuities in medical knowledge and practice that have been manifest in a range of traditional and contemporary Tibetan societies

Manufacturing Tibetan Medicine Martin Saxer, 2013-04-01 Within a mere decade hospital pharmacies throughout the Tibetan areas of the People's Republic of China have been converted into pharmaceutical companies Confronted with the logic of capital and profit these companies now produce commodities for a nationwide market While these developments are depicted as a big success in China they have also been met with harsh criticism in Tibet At stake is a fundamental re manufacturing of Tibetan medicine as a system of knowledge and practice Being important both to the agenda of the Party State's policies on Tibet and to Tibetan self understanding the Tibetan medicine industry has become an arena in which different visions of Tibet's future clash

Manual of Standard Tibetan Nicolas Tournadre, Sangda Dorje, Rdo-rje (Gsañ-bdag.), 2003 The Manual of Standard Tibetan presents the everyday speech of Lhasa as it is currently used in Tibet and among the Tibetan diaspora It not only places the language in its natural context but also highlights along the way key aspects of Tibetan civilization and Vajrayana Buddhism The Manual which consists of forty one lessons is illustrated with many drawings and photographs and also includes two informative political and linguistic maps of Tibet Two CDs provide an essential oral complement to the manual A detailed introduction presents a linguistic overview of spoken and written Tibetan

Food of Sinful Demons Geoffrey Barstow, 2017-10-24 Tibetan Buddhism teaches compassion toward all beings a category that explicitly includes animals Slaughtering animals is morally problematic at best and at worst completely incompatible with a religious lifestyle Yet historically most Tibetans both monastic and lay have made meat a regular part of their diet In this study of the place of vegetarianism within Tibetan religiosity Geoffrey Barstow explores the tension between Buddhist ethics and Tibetan cultural norms to offer a novel perspective on the spiritual and social dimensions of meat eating Food of Sinful Demons shows the centrality of vegetarianism to the cultural history of Tibet through specific ways in which nonreligious norms and ideals shaped religious beliefs and practices Barstow offers a detailed analysis of the debates over meat eating and vegetarianism from the first references to such a diet in the tenth century through the Chinese invasion in the 1950s He discusses elements of Tibetan Buddhist thought including monastic vows the Buddhist call to compassion and tantric antinomianism that see meat eating as morally problematic He then looks beyond religious attitudes to examine the cultural economic and environmental factors that oppose the Buddhist critique of meat including Tibetan concepts of medicine and health food scarcity the display of wealth and idealized male gender roles

Barstow argues that the issue of meat eating was influenced by a complex interplay of factors with religious perspectives largely supporting vegetarianism while practical concerns and secular ideals pulled in the other direction He concludes by addressing the surge in vegetarianism in contemporary Tibet in light of evolving notions of Tibetan identity and resistance against the central Chinese state The first book to discuss this complex issue Food of Sinful Demons is essential reading for scholars interested in Tibetan religion history and culture as well as global food history
