Computer Science in Industrial Application Yanglv Ling, 2015-07-28 CSIA 2014 focusses on improvements in computer science in industrial application The contributions are grouped into five main sections 1 Computer and Information Technology 2 Business management E commerce and Tourism This section covers mainly basic theory and general method of economic management businesses and market economy nbs China's Military Transformation You Ji, 2016-01-25 China's military transformation is one of the major geo strategic developments of the 21st Century Billions of dollars are being spent modernizing The People's Liberation Army PLA as China seeks to upgrade and expand its military capabilities to rival the US In this cutting edge analysis You Ji a leading expert on China's military affairs explores the changes taking place within the PLA today covering its ground aerospace and maritime forces its ability to meet asymmetric threats and the growing role played by the People's Armed Police in quelling dissent in China He shows how these transformations in personnel technology and strategic goals are slowly driving a wedge between China's two most powerful institutions Until recently relations between the CCP and PLA were harmonious but as the PLA becomes increasingly professionalized and autonomous so its unconditional loyalty to the ruling Party may weaken The changing relationship between the CCP and PLA he argues is likely to have profound implications for China's own political development and the balance of power in the Asia Pacific region Comprehensive and incisive this timely book is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the nature and consequences of China's military rise History and Nationalist Legitimacy in Contemporary China Robert Weatherley, Qiang Zhang, 2017-08-30 This book examines how the Chinese Communist Party CCP has attempted to bolster its nationalist legitimacy through the utilisation of Chinese history The authors identify two different modes of nationalism aggressive and consensual both of which are linked to the historical memory of the late Qing Dynasty and Republican era

Aggressive nationalism dwells on China's traumatic century of humiliation and is intended to incite popular resentment towards former imperialist powers particularly Japan and the US whenever they are deemed to still be acting in a provocative manner in their dealings with China. The aim is to remind the Chinese people that the CCP liberated China from imperialism after 1949 and has since restored national pride. Consensual nationalism is more conciliatory, emphasising common historical ties with the Guomindang KMT during the Second Sino-Japanese War and the Republican era. Here the CCP is trying to promote itself as the party of national harmony and unity with the long-term objective being peaceful reunification with Taiwan. However, the public response in China has not always been supportive of the CCP's claims to be the sole defender of Chinese national interests. Some critics have suggested that China would have been better off if the KMT had won the civil war instead of the CCP. Others have insisted that the party is hopelessly weak on issues of national importance and that China is no stronger now than it was during the final throes of the much-hated Qing Dynasty. This book will be of interest to research students and scholars of Chinese politics, history and international relations.

Three Revolutions Simon Hall, 2025-07-01. A salve for our current reactionary times. ANDREW HARTMAN. The gripping untold story of how six epic journeys launched the three communist revolutions that changed world history forever. From the streets of Petrograd during the heady autumn of 1917 to Mao's stunning victory in October 1949 and Fidel's triumphant arrival in Havana in January 1959, the history of the twentieth century was transformed in dramatic and profound ways by the Russian, Chinese and Cuban revolutions. In Three Revolutions, the stories of these epoch-defining events are told together for the first time. At the heart of each revolution was an epic journey: Lenin's 1917 return to Russia from exile in Switzerland; Mao's Long March of 1934-35, covering some 6,000 miles across China; and Fidel Castro's return to Cuba in 1956 following his exile in Mexico. Told in tandem with these are the corresponding journeys of three extraordinary journalists John Reed Edgar Snow and Herbert L Matthews whose electric testimony from the frontlines of each revolution would make a decisive contribution to how these revolutions were understood in the wider world Here in Simon Hall s masterful retelling these six remarkable journeys are brought vividly to life Featuring a stellar cast extraordinary drama and an epic sweep Three Revolutions raises fundamental questions about the nature of political power the limits of idealism and the role of the journalist questions that remain of utmost urgency today Raising Victims Leonydus Johnson,2023-02-07
