Instructional Strategies Toby Karten, 2013-01-01 The Common Core State Standards which have been adopted in most states in the country delineate the skills and knowledge that students are expected to possess at each grade level K 12 in order to be college and career ready CCR by the time they graduate high school They are designed to ensure that ALL American students including students with disabilities receive a high quality education that positions them for lifelong success In IEPs CCSS Specially Designed Instructional Strategies author Toby Karten presents a variety of specially designed instructional strategies and interventions that teachers and IEP team members can use to connect the individualized education programs IEPs of students with disabilities to the Common Core State Standards CCSS This six page tri fold laminated guide offers a side by side outline of the required components of an IEP and the criteria for instruction according to the CCSS Karten explains that when developing a student's IEP the IEP team should include both individualized goals the behaviors skills tasks the student is expected to learn and the grade level standards of the CCSS The guide offers examples of accommodations and instructional supports to include in a student's IEP to help him/her meet IEP goals as well as math and literacy standards Specially designed instruction may include among other things the involvement of additional service providers instructional strategies based on universal design for learning UDL principles assistive technology devices and services incorporating the student's interests and strengths Five scenarios are provided to demonstrate a variety of ways instruction can be individualized for students with specific classifications strengths and interests The guide also outlines a step by step approach for helping students with IEPs achieve the standards Additional online and print resources are also included making this guide a valuable quick reference tool for IEP team members IEP Goal Writing for

Speech-Language Pathologists Lydia Kopel, Elissa Kilduff, 2020-06-15 IEP Goal Writing for Speech Language Pathologists Utilizing State Standards Second Edition familiarizes the speech language pathologist SLP with specific Early Learning Standards ELS and Common Core State Standards CCSS as well as the speech language skills necessary for students to be successful with the school curriculum It also describes how to write defensible Individualized Education Plan IEP goals that are related to the ELS and CCSS SLPs work through a set of steps to determine a student's speech language needs. First an SLP needs to determine what speech language skills are necessary for mastery of specific standards. Then the SLP determines what prerequisite skills are involved for each targeted speech language skill. Finally there is a determination of which Steps to Mastery need to be followed. It is through this process that an SLP and team of professionals can appropriately develop interventions and an effective IEP. The text takes an in-depth look at the following speech language areas: vocabulary, questions, narrative skills, summarize, compare and contrast, main idea and details, critical thinking, pragmatics, syntax and morphology, and articulation and phonological processes. These areas were selected because they are the most commonly addressed skills of intervention for students aged 3 to 21 with all levels of functioning. For each listed area, the text analyzes the prerequisite skills and the corresponding Steps to Mastery. It provides a unique step-by-step process for transforming the Steps to Mastery into defensible IEP goals. The key is to remember that the goal must be understandable, doable, measurable, and achievable. This text provides clear guidelines of quantifiable building blocks to achieve specific goals defined by the student's IEP. School-based SLPs are instrumental in helping students develop speech and language skills essential for mastery of the curriculum and standards. All SLPs working with school-aged children in public schools, private practice, or outpatient clinics will benefit from the information in this text. New to the Second Edition: Ten Speech and Language Checklists for determining speech and language needs of an individual 3-21 years of age as well as measuring progress. Material on measuring progress including five performance updates. Goal writing case studies for four students of different ages and skill levels. A thoroughly updated chapter on writing goals with up-to-date examples. Revised Prerequisite Skills and Steps to Mastery to reflect the current state of research. Expanded focus on evidence-based practice. Instructional Strategies for Learners with IEPs Toby Karten, 2019-05-08. This compact yet comprehensive guide provides K-12 educators of students who receive special education services with a brief overview of the purpose and essential elements of an individualized education program (IEP) along with adaptations, interventions, and supports to incorporate into the IEP as part of specially designed instruction (SDI). It includes a framework for step-by-step planning as well as sample IEP lesson plans for students at various grade levels that demonstrate how specially designed instruction connects to students' IEPs to help them meet individual goals. This resource will help IEP teams develop IEP goals and objectives that are ambitious and aligned with the K-12 general education curriculum to ensure students with disabilities are included and prepared for postsecondary options. It includes an IEP Collaborative Planner that lists an extensive menu of daily/weekly instructional strategies and interventions along with progress monitoring and curriculum-based assessments. Access to more detailed downloadable forms is provided to help teachers put ideas into action.

Taking on a Learning Disability Erin McCloskey, 2012-08-01 In the United States approximately 2 5 million students are diagnosed as having a learning disability and the majority of those children are placed in special education because of an inability to read as expected As a result of this diagnosis these children may be placed in special education classrooms classrooms that are separate from the mainstream population For children with learning disabilities there is likely no place other than in school where a student s inability to read as expected leads to this separation from his her peers Once school is over these children play alongside the kids in their neighborhoods participate in sports teams and attend community activities This book looks at the impact of being labeled as learning disabled and separated from peers in school through the eyes of Samson a middle school student described both as learning disabled and a non reader This qualitative case study explores how Samson his family his teachers and this researcher make sense of special education and the complexities of learning to read as an adolescent Throughout this book there is a contrasting of the laws and procedures designed to guide special education with the actual experiences of those impacted by these laws and procedures Through the three years that Samson was in middle school this book investigates his perspective on his classes his interpretation of what it means to be a student in special education and the process by which he learns to read How disability gets created contested and discussed is highlighted through the many contexts that allow disability to be recognized and to fade into the background

The edTPA Assessment for Special Education Pre-Service Teachers Stephen J. Hernandez, 2020-04-23 This book is designed to assist the Special Education pre service teacher plan and prepare a successful edTPA portfolio assessment Creation of this portfolio requires the candidate to plan implement and assess a series of three to five lessons designed specifically for one student with a disability In total the portfolio amounts to the writing of up to fifty pages of commentary and analysis of their pedagogical skills The need for pre service teachers in special education to receive a passing score on the edTPA portfolio assessment has become a requirement for teacher certification and the successful completion of a degree preparation program in the majority of states in the USA The creation of a successful high quality edTPA portfolio necessitates the incorporation of teaching and assessment strategies geared towards students with disabilities or the focus learner in edTPA parlance This book will provide the Special Education pre service teacher and edTPA candidate with detailed guidance on the development of a high quality portfolio The reader will discover here a wealth of best practices and proven strategies that teacher candidates of special education are sure to find highly beneficial in creating their portfolio
