Enhancing Learning Sanmugam, Mageswaran, Lim, Darren, Mohd Barkhaya, Nurul Maziah, Wan Yahaya, Wan Ahmad Jaafar, Khlaif, Zuheir, 2024-08-09 In the domains of education learners tend to lose interest over time when they are being forced to learn. While the use of extrinsic rewards could motivate learners to a certain degree, it is not ideal as a long-term approach. Instead, learners should be inspired and ignited by the passion for learning itself. Persuasion, which refers to a symbolic process that adopts communication as a medium to achieve behavioral and attitudinal change, holds the potential to convince students to act in such a way. Power of Persuasive Educational Technologies in Enhancing Learning addresses the needs of the future generation classroom through leveraging the art and science of persuasion to be incorporated into pedagogical, andragogical, and heutagogical approaches in teaching and learning while also utilizing various technologies. Also, this book offers novel and practical propositions and precedents to be employed in training classrooms, higher institutions, and more, with the aim of reaching readers such as educators, academicians, researchers, scholars, instructors, instructional designers, and even students. Handbook on the Economics and Management of Sustainable Oceans Paulo A.L.D. Nunes, Lisa Emelia Svensson, Anil Markandya, 2017-02-24 The transdisciplinary thematic areas of oceans management and policy require stocktaking of the state of knowledge on ecosystem services being derived from coastal and marine areas. Recently adopted Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), especially Goals 14 and 15, explicitly focus on this. This Handbook brings together a carefully chosen set of world-class contributions from ecology, economics, and other development science and attempts to provide policy-relevant scientific information on ecosystem services from marine and coastal ecosystems, nuances of economic valuation, relevant legal and sociological response policies for effective management of marine areas for enhanced human well-being. The contributors focus on the possible nexus of science, society, and science policy with the objective of informing decision makers of the governmental agencies, business and industry, and civil society in general with respect to sustainable management of Oceans. Sustainability Challenges and Delivering Practical Engineering Solutions Gasim Hayder Ahmed Salih, Rashid A. Saeed, 2023-05-08 This book highlights the recent findings and advances in science, engineering, technology, and sustainability issues. It aims to discuss, reflect, and share experience in addressing the findings in science, engineering, technology, and sustainability. The book aims to report the various interrelated disciplines from different institutions to discuss, reflect, and share technology and experience in addressing new findings and strategies. This book presents the proceedings of the Science Engineering Technology and Sustainability International Conference SETS2021, which was held virtually as sustainable virtual conferences become the new normal during December 23-25, 2021. This book is presenting latest research findings and is suitable for researchers, postgraduate students, professionals, and experts. The book includes interesting and top research in fuzzy modeling and decision-making applications in computer science. Several chapters address trending research about bioremediation and phytoremediation. There are mainly three research findings that cover artificial intelligence, sustainability, and new technologies. Elder Abuse XinQi

Putting science and engineering at the heart of government policy Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Innovation, Universities, Science and Skills Committee,2009-07-23 A report that considers the broad issue of why science and engineering are important and why they should be at the heart of Government policy It also considers three more specific issues the debate on strategic priorities the principles that inform science funding decisions and the scrutiny of science and engineering across Government Nanotoxicology for Agricultural and Environmental Applications Mahendra Rai,Indarchand Gupta,2024-03-19 Published as part of Elsevier s series Nanobiotechnology for Plant Protection Nanotoxicology for Agricultural and Environmental Applications provides an introduction to nanotechnology and its applications in agriculture and the environment Divided into five parts this book addresses nanotechnology and regulations nanotoxicity nanotoxicity to agriculture and food nanotoxicity to the environment and risk management measures to avoid exposure Students practitioners and researchers working in plant science agricultural science nanoscience and environmental chemistry alike will benefit from this necessary reference Highlights the factors contributing to toxic effects of nanoparticles including shape size structure surface charge and dosage Explores the mode of action and entry of nanoparticles methods of toxicity evaluation and the associated challenges Describes recent developments in nanotoxicity to soil ecosystems crop plants and food systems Emphasizes the impact of nanoparticles and their detoxification by plants on the nutritional quality of food and plants Discusses the impact of toxicity of nanoparticles released in air soil and water and methods to reduce their effects Reinventing STEM in Early Childhood Education Eugene Geist,2025-05-09 Teaching STEM to young children is about more than helping them learn their numbers and facts It is an important and complex process that to be effective should honor the way children s brains are developing This book outlines how early childhood educators can best support young children s STEM journeys as children naturally take in information about their environment synthesize it and grow in the process This comprehensive text details different theories of learning research on how young brains develop practical information on preparing your environment and yourself for teaching STEM to children guidance for supporting diverse populations of students and developmental guidelines sample standards resources and lesson plans Organized chronologically the book connects relevant STEM topics with each developmental age range and outlines common school standards for each grade Reinventing STEM in Early Childhood Education is meant to be a core text for preservice teachers in math and science methods courses and is also important reading for teacher educators and professional development programs

Community Series in Neurobiological Biomarkers for Developing Novel Treatments of Substance and Non-Substance Addiction, volume II Yanhui Liao,Dara G. Ghahremani,Jianhua Chen,Kyoji Okita,Wenbin Guo,2023-10-17 This Research Topic is the second volume of the Community Series in Neurobiological Biomarkers for Developing Novel Treatments of Substance and Non Substance Addiction Please see the first volume here Many people suffer from substance from nicotine or alcohol to heroin methamphetamine cocaine etc or non substance from gaming gambling to shopping internet smartphone etc addiction Both types of addiction are associated with severe health economic and social consequences and are far too often result in both familial and personal tragedies Unfortunately current treatments are not very effective for either substance or non substance addiction so novel treatments are desperately needed For example for nicotine addiction despite very well documented health risks of cigarette smoking and its economic and societal costs globally more than 30% of males still smoke and although many smokers desire to quit only approximately 5 30% will achieve abstinence with 6 months or more of the best available current treatments And the story for nicotine addiction is far from unique presenting a huge challenge for the entire addiction field Therefore there is a vital need to improve outcomes for the treatment of both substance and non substance addictions Recent work exploring neurobiological mechanisms of the treatment response at the molecular cellular and systems levels with a broad range of technologies such as Magnetic Resonance Imaging MRI genetics and genomics have opened new avenues for developing novel treatments through the detection of neurobiological biomarkers predicting efficacious outcomes in addicted patients

Tools, Techniques, and Strategies for Teaching in a Real-World Context With Microbiology Davida Smyth,Nichole A. Broderick,Laura Bowater,Carlos C. Goller,2021-12-02 Handbook of Disaster Research Havidán Rodríguez,William Donner,Joseph E. Trainor,2017-11-16 This timely Handbook is based on the principle that disasters are social constructions and focuses on social science disaster research It provides an interdisciplinary approach to disasters with theoretical methodological and practical applications Attention is given to conceptual issues dealing with the concept disaster and to methodological issues relating to research on disasters These include Geographic Information Systems as a useful research tool and its implications for future research This seminal work is the first interdisciplinary collection of disaster research as it stands now while outlining how the field will continue to grow

Repositioning Pedagogical

Content Knowledge in Teachers' Knowledge for Teaching Science Anne Hume, Rebecca Cooper, Andreas

Borowski, 2019-01-28 This book enhances readers understanding of science teachers professional knowledge and illustrates how the Pedagogical Content Knowledge research agenda can make a difference in teachers practices and how students learn science Importantly it offers an updated international perspective on the evolving nature of Pedagogical Content Knowledge and how it is shaping research and teacher education agendas for science teaching The first few chapters background and introduce a new model known as the Refined Consensus Model RCM of Pedagogical Content Knowledge PCK in science education and clarify and demonstrate its use in research and teacher education and practice Subsequent chapters show how this new consensus model of PCK in science education is strongly connected with empirical data of varying nature contains a tailored language to describe the nature of PCK in science education and can be used as a framework for illuminating past studies and informing the design of future PCK studies in science education By presenting and discussing the RCM of PCK within a variety of science education contexts the book makes the model significantly more applicable to teachers work Biogeochemical Cycles Katerina Dontsova, Zsuzsanna Balogh-Brunstad, Gaël Le
