The Next Step: Advanced Medical Coding and Auditing, 2014 Edition - E-Book Carol J. Buck, 2013-12-13 Updated content includes the latest coding information available to promote accurate coding and success on the job Insecure Guardians Zoha Waseem, 2022-11-15 The police force is one of the most distrusted institutions in Pakistan notorious for its corruption and brutality In both colonial and postcolonial contexts directives to confront security threats have empowered law enforcement agents while the lack of adequate reform has upheld institutional weaknesses This exploration of policing in Karachi Pakistan's largest city and financial capital reveals many colonial continuities Both civilian and military regimes continue to ensure the suppression of the policed via this institution itself established to militarily subjugate and exploit in the interests of the ruling class However contemporary policing practice is not a simple product of its colonial heritage it has also evolved to confront new challenges and political realities Based on extensive fieldwork and almost 150 interviews this ethnographic study reveals a distinctly postcolonial condition of policing Mutually reinforcing phenomena of militarisation and informality have been exacerbated by an insecure state that routinely conflates combatting crime maintaining public order and ensuring national security This is evident not only in spectacular displays of violence and malpractice but also in police officers routine work Caught in the middle of the country's armed conflicts their encounters with both state and society are a story of insecurity and uncertainty Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Pamela J. Farris, 2015-02-03 The latest edition of Pamela Farris's popular value priced text continues to offer pre and in service teachers creative strategies and proven techniques sensitive to the needs of all elementary and middle school learners Coverage includes the C3 Framework and the four sets of learning from the National Curriculum Standards for Social Studies Farris together with contributors who specialize in implementing successful teaching methods and theories demonstrate how classroom teachers can excite and inspire their students to be engaged learners Know Thy Enemy Meir Litvak, 2021-03-22 In Know Thy Enemy Meir Litvak analyzes the re-articulations of the Others in modern Shi'ism as a novel way to examine the formulation of modern Shi'i identity and place in the world Among these others which have transformed into enemies in the modern period are the West apostates Wahhabism Jews Baha'is and feminism Looking at the rhetorical themes that Shi'i writers use the book demonstrates the contrast between the collective positive We and the negative threatening Other as a major principle in the evolution of Shi'ism as the minority branch of Islam It offers a complex view of Shi'i identity combining a sense of victimhood and insecurity together with conviction of intellectual and moral superiority and long term triumph "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2014", 2014 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020 Globalization, Nationalism, and Music Education in the Twenty-First Century in Greater China Wai-Chung Ho, 2025-10-01 Globalization Nationalism and Music Education in the Twenty First Century in Greater China examines the recent developments in school education and music education in Greater China Mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan and the relationship between and integration of national cultural identity and globalization in their respective school curriculums Regardless of their common history and cultural backgrounds in recent decades these localities have experienced divergent political cultural and educational structures Through an analysis of the literature official curriculum documents approved music textbooks and a survey questionnaire and in depth interviews with music teachers this book also examines the ways in which policies for national identity formation and globalization interact to complement and contradict each other in the context of music education in respect to national and cultural values in the three territories Wai Chung Ho s substantive research interests include the sociology of music China s education system and the comparative study of East Asian music education Her research focuses on education and development with an emphasis on the impact of the interplay between globalization nationalization and localization on cultural development and school music education Johns Hopkins

Speaking Truths Valerie Chepp,2022-02-11 The twenty first century is already riddled with protests demanding social justice and in every instance young people are leading the charge But in addition to protesters who take to the streets with handmade placards are young adults who engage in less obvious change making tactics In Speaking Truths sociologist Valerie Chepp goes behind the scenes to uncover how spoken word poetry and young people's participation in it contributes to a broader understanding of contemporary social justice activism including this generation's attention to the political importance of identity well being and love Drawing upon detailed observations and in depth interviews Chepp tells the story of a diverse group of young adults from Washington D C who use spoken word to create a more just and equitable world Outlining the contours of this approach she interrogates spoken word activism's emphasis on personal storytelling and truth the strategic uses of aesthetics and emotions to politically engage across difference and the significance of healing in sustainable movements for change Weaving together their poetry and personally told stories Chepp shows how poets tap into the beautiful emotional personal and therapeutic features of spoken word to empathically connect with others advance intersectional and systemic analyses of inequality and make social justice messages relatable across a diverse public By creating allies and forging connections based on friendship professional commitments lived experiences emotions artistic kinship and political views this activist approach is highly integrated into the everyday lives of its practitioners online and face to face Chepp argues that spoken word activism is a product of and a call to action against the neoliberal era in which poets have come of age characterized by widening structural inequalities and increasing economic and social vulnerability She illustrates how this deeply personal and intimate activist approach borrows from builds upon and diverges from previous social movement paradigms Spotlighting the complexity and mutual influence of modern day activism and the world in which it unfolds Speaking Truths contributes to our understanding of contemporary social change making and how neoliberalism has shaped this generation's experiences with social injustice
