City Mismanaged Leo F. Goodstadt, 2019-11-01 A City Mismanaged traces the collapse of good governance in Hong Kong explains its causes and exposes the damaging impact on the community's quality of life Leo Goodstadt argues that the current well being and future survival of Hong Kong have been threatened by disastrous policy decisions made by chief executives and their principal officials Individual chapters look at the most shocking examples of mismanagement the government's refusal to implement the Basic Law in full official reluctance to halt the large scale dilapidation of private sector homes into accommodation unfit for habitation and ministerial toleration of the rise of new slums Mismanagement of economic relations with Mainland China is shown to have created severe business losses Goodstadt's riveting investigations include extensive scandals in the post secondary education sector and how lives are at risk because of the inadequate staff levels and limited funding allocated to key government departments This book offers a unique and very powerful account of Hong Kong's struggle to survive Goodstadt demonstrates how the neglect of social rights in managing the SAR has brought about serious consequences through the discussion of housing medical services and education A highly readable title with a lot of interesting arguments for those who really care about Hong Kong Lui Tai lok Department of Asian and Policy Studies Education University of Hong Kong Goodstadt gives a well grounded and relentless rebuke of the HKSAR government for failing to safeguard lives quality of living and the interests of its people in the past twenty years It is a poignant siren that calls for reflection and correction Christine M S Fang Department of Social Work and Social Administration The University of Hong Kong Goodstadt utilizes his long experience in public policy in Hong Kong to interpret the city's mismanagement He supplies a devastating critique of the fallacy of the approach taken by the Chief Executives and the senior leaders David R Meyer Olin Business School Washington University in St Louis Challenges of European External Energy Governance with Emerging Powers Michèle Knodt, Nadine Piefer, 2016-03-03 In a multipolar world with growing demand for energy not least by Emerging Powers such as Brazil India China or South Africa BICS questions of EU external energy governance would at first hand appear to be a high priority Yet reality tells a different story the EU's geographical focus remains on adjacent countries in the European neighbourhood and on issues related to energy security. Despite being Strategic Partners and engaging in energy dialogues, it seems that the EU is lacking strategic vision and is not perceived as a major actor in energy cooperation with the BICS. Thus, political momentum for energy cooperation and joint governance of scarce resources is vanishing. Resulting from three years of international interdisciplinary research cooperation among academics and practitioners in Europe and the BICS countries within a project funded by the Volkswagen Foundation, this volume addresses one of the greatest global challenges. Specific focus lies on the bilateral energy dialogues and Strategic Partnerships between the EU and Emerging Powers regarding bilateral inter and transnational energy cooperation. Furthermore, the analysis provides policy recommendations in order to tap the full potential of energy cooperation between the EU and Brazil, India, China, and South Africa.

Singapore Jason Lim, Terence Lee, 2016-05-26. On 9 August 2015, Singapore celebrated its 50th year of national independence, a milestone for the nation as it has overcome major economic, social, cultural, and political challenges in a short period of time. Whilst this was a celebratory event to acknowledge the role of the People's Action Party (PAP) government, it was also marked by national remembrance as founding Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew died in March 2015. This book critically reflects on Singapore's 50 years of independence. Contributors interrogate a selected range of topics on Singapore's history, culture, and society, including the constitution, education, religion, and race, and thereby facilitate a better understanding of its shared national past. Central to this book is an examination of how Singaporeans have learnt to adapt and change through PAP government policies since independence in 1965. All chapters begin their histories from that point in time, and each contribution focuses either on an area that has been neglected in Singapore's modern history or offer new perspectives on the past. Using a multi-disciplinary approach, it presents an independent and critical take on Singapore's post-1965 history. A valuable assessment to students and researchers alike, Singapore: Negotiating State and Society 1965-2015 is of interest to specialists in Southeast Asian
