Climate Adaptation Investment and the Community Reinvestment Act Jesse M. Keenan, Elizabeth Mattiuzzi, 2019-06-17 Climate change is already causing disruption to regional economic activity Low to moderate income populations are highly vulnerable to these impacts in part because they often have fewer resources to adapt The stability and prosperity of local economies in the face of climate change depends on how well the public private and civic sectors can come together to respond to the shocks and stresses of climate change Collaborative efforts to fund climate adaptation not only reduce the burden on highly vulnerable populations but they also offer the opportunity for co benefits within a broader portfolio of community development ambitions This report introduces the field of climate adaptation finance and explains its connection to the Community Reinvestment Act CRA within the context of the disaster provisions guiding pre and post disaster investments In a demonstration of need the report provides evidence of the spatial concentration of disaster declarations in areas with CRA eligible populations Existing innovative and hypothetical investments are highlighted within a broader context for stimulating greater pre disaster planning and investment Community development practitioners investors and policymakers will find this report useful for sparking new ideas about how to develop partnerships and funding streams for CRA eligible activities in both eligible communities and areas within a federal disaster declaration that will reduce the vulnerability and increase the adaptive capacity of communities to the impacts of climate change Handbook of Research on the Facilitation of Civic Engagement through Community Art Hersey, Leigh Nanney,Bobick, Bryna,2016-12-05 Outreach and engagement initiatives are crucial in promoting community development This can be achieved through a number of methods including avenues in the fine arts The Handbook of Research on the Facilitation of Civic Engagement through Community Art is a comprehensive reference source for emerging perspectives on the incorporation of artistic works to facilitate improved civic engagement and social justice Featuring innovative coverage across relevant topics such as art education service learning and student engagement this handbook is ideally designed for practitioners artists professionals academics and students interested in active citizen participation via artistic channels Reimagining Reproduction Kalindi Vora,2022-12-30 This book presents an ethnographic study on gestational surrogacy in India It frames the ethnography of the surrogacy clinic in conversation with concerns raised in the arenas of law policy medical ethics and global structural inequality about the ethics of transnational assisted reproductive technology ART practices Engaging ethical discourses that both advocate for and trouble the subject of reproductive rights that remains of interest in feminist studies the volume takes up the work of critical feminist anthropological and science studies scholarship in India the United States and Europe concerned with reproductive technologies Based on fieldwork and archival sources the volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of ethnography gender social and public policy South Asian studies and global public health especially reproductive health

The Nonprofit Sector Walter W Powell,Patricia Bromley,2023-05-25 Timely unique and definitive not only chronicles the history of the nonprofit sector but also provides a broad but critical analysis of its current state Vartan Gregorian President Carnegie Corporation of New York The nonprofit sector has changed in fundamental ways in recent decades As the sector has grown in scope and size both domestically and internationally the boundaries between for profit governmental and charitable organizations have become intertwined Nonprofits are increasingly challenged on their roles in mitigating or exacerbating inequality And debates flare over the role of voluntary organizations in democratic and autocratic societies alike The Nonprofit Sector takes up these concerns and offers a cutting edge empirical and theoretical assessment of the state of the field This book now in its third edition brings together leading researchers economists historians philosophers political scientists and sociologists along with scholars from communication education law management and policy schools to investigate the impact of associational life Chapters consider the history of the nonprofit sector and of philanthropy the politics of the public sphere governance mission and engagement access and inclusion and global perspectives on nonprofit organizations Across this comprehensive range of topics The Nonprofit Sector makes an essential contribution to the study of civil society Praise for previous editions Takes a decidedly multidisciplinary approach invaluable Journal of Policy Analysis and Management A major contribution to the field Social Forces
