Sexual Predation and TEFL Vaughan Rapatahana, 2024-12-16 Teaching English as a Foreign Language TEFL enables sexual predation across the wide range of activities and locales it encompasses beyond schools and inclusive of voluntourist and aid programmes where EFL is taught This predation is carried out not only by male Native speaking English Teachers NETs on their students peers and members of local communities but also carried out on female NETs and EFL students by locals Is TEFL inherently sexist utilising gender biased texts This book is the first to examine in considerable detail such English language sexual imperialism and to suggest ways to curtail it

An Invitation to Slow Mark R. McMinn, Lisa Graham McMinn, 2024-10-22 We live in a day of fast information fast fingers fast food fast shipping fast words fast anger and fast judgment Our fight or flight impulses keep us on high alert aided by mobile devices that vibrate each time another crisis strikes All this fastness can easily interfere with a slow intentional life grounded in God's love Christian faith has deep treasures and practices to offer us How will we live and who will we be in this highly charged era where politics economics environment and social norms are under significant duress Come explore quieter more intentional ways of being and how these might attune us to the slow work of God in order that we might love one another and the world as God does Our chapters pair a lure to move fast with an invitation to slow Becoming slow to anger is an invitation to empathy slow to judge is an invitation to humility and slow to grasp is an invitation to contentment Ultimately each of these invitations is a movement toward God

The Visual Life of Climate Change Saffron O'Neill, 2025-12-08 Available open access digitally under CC BY NC ND licence Images can play a key role in communication but climate change imagery can be formulaic and narrow in perspective Going beyond polar bears and wildfires this book is a manifesto for opening up the visual discourse on climate Rather than portraying scenarios that can be remote from many people's lives Saffron O'Neill shows how images can be powerful tools to engage viewers and enable them to connect different issues together With engaging case studies and practical advice throughout the book shows how visuals can represent climate change in more diverse equitable inclusive and responsible ways

Quinoa Linda J. Seligmann, 2023-01-10 Quinoa's new status as a superfood has altered the economic fortunes of Quechua farmers in the Andean highlands Linda J Seligmann journeys to the Huanquite region of Peru to track the mixed blessings brought about by the surging worldwide popularity of this exquisite grain Focusing on how Indigenous communities have confronted globalization Seligmann examines the influence of food politics development initiatives and the region's agrarian history on present day quinoa production among Huanquiteos She also looks at the human stories behind these transformations from the work of quinoa brokers to the ways Huanquite's men and women navigate the shifts in place and power occurring in their homes and communities Finally Seligmann considers how the consequences of nearby mining may impact Huanquiteos ability to farm quinoa and thrive in their environment and the efforts they are taking to resist these threats to their way of life The untold story behind the popular health food Quinoa illuminates how Indigenous communities have engaged with the politics and policies surrounding their production of a traditional and minor crop that became a global foodstuff

Deviant Leisure Thomas Raymen, Oliver Smith, 2019-09-28 This book brings together a collection of critical essays that challenge the existing dogma of leisure as an unmitigated social good in order to examine the commodification and marketisation of leisure across a number of key sites Leisure and consumer culture have become symbolic of the individual freedoms of liberal society ostensibly presenting individuals with the opportunity to display individual creativity cultural competence and taste This book problematizes these assertions and considers the range of harms that emerge in a consumer society predicated upon intense individualism and symbolic competition Approaching the field of commodified leisure through the lens of social harm this collection of essays pushes far beyond criminology's traditional interest in deviant forms of leisure to consider the normalized social interpersonal and environmental harms that emerge at the intersection of leisure and consumer capitalism Capturing the current vitality and interdisciplinary scope of recent work which is underpinned by the deviant leisure perspective this collection uses case studies original research and other forms of empirical enquiry to scrutinise activities that range from alcohol consumption and gambling to charity tourism CrossFit training and cosmetic pharmaceuticals Drawn from researchers across the UK US Europe and Australia Deviant Leisure Criminological Perspectives on Leisure and Harm represents the first systematic attempt at a criminological consideration of the global harms of the leisure industry firmly establishing leisure as a subject of serious criminological importance

The City Beneath Susan A. Phillips, 2019-11-05 A sweeping history of Los Angeles told through the lens of the many marginalized groups from hobos to taggers that have used the city's walls as a channel for communication Graffiti written in storm drain tunnels on neighborhood walls and under bridges tells an underground and until now untold history of Los Angeles Drawing on extensive research within the city's urban landscape Susan A Phillips traces the hidden language of marginalized groups over the past century from the early twentieth century markings of hobos soldiers and Japanese internees to the later inscriptions of surfers cholas and punks Whether describing daredevil kids bored workers or clandestine lovers Phillips profiles the experiences of people who remain underrepresented in conventional
