Toxic Inequality Thomas M. Shapiro, 2017-03-14 From a leading authority on race and public policy a deeply researched account of how families rise and fall today Since the Great Recession most Americans standard of living has stagnated or declined Economic inequality is at historic highs But inequality s impact differs by race African Americans net wealth is just a tenth that of white Americans and over recent decades white families have accumulated wealth at three times the rate of black families In our increasingly diverse nation sociologist Thomas M Shapiro argues wealth disparities must be understood in tandem with racial inequities a dangerous combination he terms toxic inequality In Toxic Inequality Shapiro reveals how these forces combine to trap families in place Following nearly two hundred families of different races and income levels over a period of twelve years Shapiro s research vividly documents the recession s toll on parents and children the ways families use assets to manage crises and create opportunities and the real reasons some families build wealth while others struggle in poverty The structure of our neighborhoods workplaces and tax code much more than individual choices push some forward and hold others back A lack of assets far more common in families of color can often ruin parents careful plans for themselves and their children Toxic inequality may seem inexorable but it is not inevitable America s growing wealth gap and its yawning racial divide have been forged by history and preserved by policy and only bold race conscious reforms can move us toward a more just society Everyone concerned about the toxic effects of inequality must read this book Robert B Reich This is one of the most thought provoking books I have read on economic inequality in the US William Julius Wilson

Critical Race Spatial Analysis Deb Morrison, Subini Ancy Annamma, Darrell D. Jackson, 2023-07-03 How does space illuminate educational inequity Where and how can spatial analysis be used to disrupt educational inequity Which tools are most appropriate for the spatial analysis of educational equity This book addresses these questions and explores the use of critical spatial analysis to uncover the dimensions of entrenched and systemic racial inequities in educational settings and identify ways to redress them The contributors to this book some of whom are pioneering scholars of critical race spatial analysis theory and methodology demonstrate the application of the theory and tools applied to specific locales and in doing so illustrate how this spatial and temporal lens enriches traditional approaches to research The opening macro theoretical chapter lays the foundation for the book rooting spatial analyses in critical commitments to studying injustice Among the innovative methodological chapters included in this book is the re conceptualization of mapping and space beyond the simple exploration of external spaces to considering internal geographies highlighting how the privileged may differ in socio spatial thinking from oppressed communities and what may be learned from both perspectives data representations that allow the construction of varied narratives based on differences in positionality and historicity of perspectives the application of redlining to the analysis of classroom interactions the use of historical archives to uncover the process of marginalization and the application of techniques such as the fotonovela and GIS to identify how spaces are defined and can be reimagined The book demonstrates the analytical and communicative power of mapping and its potential for identifying and dismantling racial injustice in education The editors conclude by drawing connections across sections and elucidating the tensions and possibilities for future research Contributors Benjamin Blaisdell Graham S Garlick Leigh Anna Hidalgo Mark C Hogrebe Joshua Radinsky Daniel G Sol rzano William F Tate Ver nica N V lez Federico R Waitoller Dying of Whiteness Jonathan M. Metzl, 2019-03-05 A physician s provocative Boston Globe and timely Ibram X Kendi New York Times Book Review account of how right wing backlash policies have deadly consequences even for the white voters they promise to help In election after election conservative white Americans have embraced politicians who pledge to make their lives great again But as physician Jonathan M Metzl shows in Dying of Whiteness the policies that result actually place white Americans at ever greater risk of sickness and death Interviewing a range of everyday Americans Metzl examines how racial resentment has fueled progun laws in Missouri resistance to the Affordable Care Act in Tennessee and cuts to schools and social services in Kansas He shows these policies costs increasing deaths by gun suicide falling life expectancies and rising dropout rates Now updated with a new afterword Dying of Whiteness demonstrates how much white America would benefit by emphasizing cooperation rather than chasing false promises of supremacy Winner of the Robert F Kennedy Book Award State Assessment Policy and Practice for English Language Learners Charlene Rivera, Eric Collum, 2014-05-12 State Assessment Policy and Practice for English Language Learners presents three significant studies each examining a different aspect of states strategies for including English language learners in state assessments an Analysis of State Assessment Policies Regarding Accommodations for English Language Learners a Survey and Description of Test Translation Practices and an Examination of State Practices for Reporting Participation and Performance of English Language Learners in State Assessments With the rise in population of English language learners and the subsequent stepped up legislative focus on this student population over the past decade states have been challenged to include English language learners in state assessment programs Until now the little data available on states policies and practices for meeting this challenge has been embedded in various reports and professional journals and scattered across the Internet This volume offers for the first time a focused examination of states assessment policies and practices regarding English language learners The three studies were supported by OELA the U S Department of Education s Office of English Language Acquisition Language Enhancement and Academic Achievement for Limited English Proficient Students State Assessment Policy and Practice for English Language Learners is of interest to researchers and professionals involved with the assessment of English language learners state and district level policy makers and academics teacher educators and graduate students in a number of fields including educational and psychological assessment testing and measurement bilingual education English as a second language and second language acquisition Implementation Fidelity in Education Research Coby Meyers, W. Christopher Brandt, 2014-09-25 Implementation science is an important and underrepresented topic in the literature of educational research despite the fact that it is inextricably tied to education policy and improvement Implementation fidelity the degree to which a program or intervention is delivered as planned is in particular a key issue for every program developer and researcher designing executing interpreting or communicating their work Implementation Fidelity in Education Research provides the first serious developer evaluator collaborative perspective on the practical considerations of implementation fidelity in program development Using case studies from Investing in Innovation i3 fund grants this book prepares future researchers for the challenges posed by implementation issues both ideologically and in practice This book will be an excellent resource for anyone interested in education research and evaluation and an excellent supplement to research methods courses Value

Added Modeling and Growth Modeling with Particular Application to Teacher and School Effectiveness Robert W. Lissitz,Hong Jiao,2014-12-01 Modeling student growth has been a federal policy requirement under No Child Left Behind NCLB In addition to tracking student growth the latest Race To The Top RTTP federal education policy stipulates the evaluation of teacher effectiveness from the perspective of added value that teachers contribute to student learning and growth Student growth modeling and teacher value added modeling are complex The complexity stems in part from issues due to non random assignment of students into classes and schools measurement error in students achievement scores that are utilized to evaluate the added value of teachers multidimensionality of the measured construct across multiple grades and the inclusion of covariates National experts at the Twelfth Annual Maryland Assessment Research Center s Conference on Value Added Modeling and Growth Modeling with Particular Application to Teacher and School Effectiveness present the latest developments and methods to tackle these issues This book includes chapters based on these conference presentations Further the book provides some answers to questions such as what makes a good growth model What criteria should be used in evaluating growth models How should outputs from growth models be utilized How auxiliary teacher information could be utilized to improve value added How multiple sources of student information could be accumulated to estimate teacher effectiveness Whether student level and school level covariates should be included And what are the impacts of the potential heterogeneity of teacher effects across students of different aptitudes or other differing characteristics on growth modeling and teacher evaluation Overall this book addresses reliability and validity issues in growth modeling and value added modeling and presents the latest development in this area In addition some persistent issues have been approached from a new perspective This edited volume provides a very good source of information related to the current explorations in student growth and teacher effectiveness evaluation Missouri Conservationist ,2014 Proceedings of the 17th European
