Ali And Nino:

Ali and Nino Kurban Said, 1999-09-01 From the author of The Girl from the Golden Horn a novel of the enduring love between childhood friends divided by war their separate cultures First published in Vienna in 1937 this classic story of romance and adventure has been compared to Dr Zhivago and Romeo and Juliet Ali and Nino is Kurban Said's masterpiece It is a captivating novel as evocative of the exotic desert landscape as it is of the passion between two people pulled apart by culture religion and war It is the eve of World War I in Baku Azerbaijan a city on the edge of the Caspian Sea poised precariously between east and west Ali Khan Shirvanshir a Muslim schoolboy from a proud aristocratic family has fallen in love with the beautiful and enigmatic Nino Kipiani a Christian girl with distinctly European sensibilities To be together they must overcome blood feud and scandal attempt a daring horseback rescue and travel from the bustling street of oil boom Baku through starkly beautiful deserts and remote mountain villages to the opulent palace of Ali's uncle in neighboring Persia Ultimately the lovers are drawn back to Baku but when war threatens their future Ali is forced to choose between his loyalty to the beliefs of his Asian ancestors and his profound devotion to Nino Combining the exotic fascination of a tale told by Scheherazade with the range and magnificence of an epic Ali and Nino is a timeless classic of love in the face of war Praise for Ali and Nino Said's romantic tale of young love and political upheaval in Central Asia calls for violins and handkerchiefs A saga of war and love and the difficult marriage of Europe and Asia in the Caucasus this is at heart a rousing old fashioned tear jerking love story Publishers Weekly Poignant and beautiful alive with a vividly unique vision of colliding cultures and enduring love Newsweek One feels as if one had dug up buried treasure An epic of cultural change that seems more immediate than this morning's headlines The New York Times Ali and Nino Kurban Said, 2000 Ali Khan and Nino Kipiani live in the cosmopolitan oil rich capital of Azerbaijan which at the beginning of the twentieth century is a melting pot of different cultures Ali is a Muslim with his ancestors passion for the desert and Nino is a Christian Georgian girl with sophisticated European ways Despite their differences the two have loved each other since childhood and Ali is determined that he will marry Nino as soon as she leaves school But there is not only the obstacle of their different religions and parental consent to overcome The First World War breaks out As the Russians withdraw the Turks advance and Ali and Nino find themselves swept up in Azerbaijan's fight for independence Ali & Nino Kurban Said, 1972 Ali i Nino Kurban Said, 1938

the backgrounds of the present reader and the origin of a particular literary discourse Trusting the authority of an author or an original text and ignoring the fundamental plurilingualism of the literary experience obstructs the wealth of cosmopolitan reading in a globalized and fragmented world A thorough critique of both local and overarching theories in clear dissent from the binaries of decolonial theory and the overextension of nomadic theory supports a precise research and teaching methodology at variance with past trends of Comparative and World Literature Considering literature as the aestheticized use of language which is universal the many analyses provided can be extrapolated to other genres eras and cultural areas
