Handbook of Research on Educational Communications and Technology

J. Michael Spector, M. David Merrill, Jan Elen, M. J. Bishop, 2013-07-03

The 4th edition of the Handbook of Research on Educational Communications and Technology expands upon the previous 3 versions providing a comprehensive update on research pertaining to new and emerging educational technologies Chapters that are no longer pertinent have been eliminated in this edition with most chapters being completely rewritten expanded and updated Additionally new chapters pertaining to research methodologies in educational technology have been added due to expressed reader interest Each chapter now contains an extensive literature review documenting and explaining the most recent outstanding research including major findings and methodologies employed The Handbook authors continue to be international leaders in their respective fields the list is cross disciplinary by design and great effort was taken to invite authors outside of the traditional instructional design and technology community

Sex and Gender John Archer, Barbara Lloyd, 2002-07-11 Sex and Gender is a substantially revised second edition of a classic text Adopting a balanced and straightforward approach to the often controversial study of sex differences the authors aim to introduce the reader to the fundamental questions relating to sex and gender in an accessible way at the same time as drawing on research in this and related areas New developments which are explored in this edition include the rise of evolutionary psychology and the influence of Social Role Theory as well as additional psychoanalytic and ethno methodological approaches which have all contributed to a greater understanding of the complex nature of masculinity and femininity
