Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education Barker, Megel R., Hansen, Robyn Conrad, Hammer, Liam, 2023-11-24 The Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education addresses the growing complexity and diversity of international schools by examining the critical issues and global trends faced by practitioners in this field. With a lack of research on the experiences and actions of school practitioners in these isolated workplaces, this book aims to provide practical and evidence-based solutions. The book covers a wide range of topics including equity and access, diversity, teacher retention, legal frameworks, school typology, governance, cultural competence, third culture kids, leadership, and practice technology and parent engagement. Written by educational professionals, researchers, and anthropologists, it offers a unique collection of voices from those with lived experiences in this field, making it an invaluable resource for anyone interested in gaining a deeper understanding of the international school sector. Whether you are an educator, researcher, policymaker, school leader, lecturer, or anthropologist, the Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education is a must-read comprehensive guide to the complexities and challenges of international education, providing practical solutions for improving the quality of education in this rapidly evolving field. If you are looking to gain a nuanced understanding of the critical issues facing international schools and evidence-based approaches for addressing these challenges, this book is the perfect resource for you. Foreign Language Education Under Global Neoliberalism Wang, Ai-Ling, 2025-07-25 Foreign language education is shaped by global neoliberalism, which prioritizes market-driven values like competition, individualism, and economic efficiency. In this context, language learning is often framed as a tool to enhance employability, mobility, and global competitiveness. Educational policies and curricula shift, emphasizing utilitarian outcomes and performance metrics over holistic or humanistic approaches. While this shift expands access for language learning, it also raises concerns about the commodification of language, the marginalization of less marketable languages, and the erosion of deeper intercultural understanding. Further exploration may reveal the long-term impacts of language learning and development under neoliberalist policies and ideals. Foreign Language Education Under Global Neoliberalism explores how global neoliberal policies influence the purpose, structure, and delivery of foreign language education, prioritizing economic utility over cultural or educational values. It examines the implications of this shift, including the commodification of language skills, the dominance of certain languages, and the impact on educational equity and cultural diversity. This book covers topics such as global business, international relations, and political science and is a useful resource for government officials, educators, academicians, researchers, and political scientists. Global Trends, Dynamics, and Imperatives for Strategic Development in Business Education in an Age of Disruption Zhuplev, Anatoly, Koepf, Robert, 2021-10-22 Over the past two centuries, the world's socio-economic progression has gone through profound paradigm changes unfolding along four major development stages. Higher education has been an important part of this process. The accelerated pace of technological, socio-economic, and business innovations, as well as ongoing fundamental changes in the real world, call for progress in pedagogy. While modern universities have adapted in various degrees through information platforms such as Blackboard or Brightspace, video conferencing, and other technological innovations, they still commonly rely on pedagogical ideas and concepts rooted in a thoroughly pre modern era rooted in medieval times Global Trends Dynamics and Imperatives for Strategic Development in Business Education in an Age of Disruption explores the genesis of higher education and its contemporary structure and profile in major global regions and discusses key trends dynamics drivers and developmental imperatives currently shaping business education Covering topics such as business education online education and strategic development this book is essential for teachers managers trainers faculty administrators policymakers researchers academicians and students involved in studies that include industrial economic social urban innovation legal and policy development

The U.S. Foreign Language Deficit Kathleen Stein-Smith, 2016-08-24 This volume explores why Americans are among the least likely in the world to speak another language and how this U S foreign language deficit negatively impacts national and economic security business and career prospects Stein Smith exposes how individuals are disadvantaged through their inability to effectively navigate the global workplace and multicultural communities how their career options are limited by the foreign language deficit and even how their ability to enjoy travel abroad and cultural pursuits is diminished Through exploring the impact of the U S foreign language deficit the author speaks to the stakeholders and partners in the campaign for foreign languages offering guidance on what can and should be done to address it She examines the next steps needed to develop specific career pathways that will meet the current and future needs of government business and industry and empower foreign language learners through curriculum and career preparation

New Trends in Early Foreign Language Learning Maria González Davies, 2012-01-17 This volume is the result of the presentations and discussions carried out at the Conference on Early Foreign Language Learning in Educational Contexts Bridging Good Practices and Research organized by the University Ramon Lull the University of Bari and LEND Lingua e Nuova Didattica in March 2010 At the Conference both teachers and researchers met to examine recent language teaching theories and practices from a transnational and intercultural perspective on the one hand and on the other to fill the gap in the field of English as a Foreign Language EFL in schools and to pave the way for a wider platform of discussion between School and University Since these two institutions have often had little contact and as there is excellent work carried out in both our attempt was to build more solid bridges across their contexts engaging school teachers in ongoing research and bringing everyday classroom practice nearer to university theoreticians in an open exchange forum so that the reflection on teaching and learning becomes relevant and rewarding for the participants involved in Early Foreign Language Learning in 21st century contexts Drawing on the main topics presented throughout the Conference this book has been structured around three main thematic areas 1 the Age Factor 2 CLIL and Content based research and practices and 3 developing intercultural competence use of the L1 and translation as mediation skills Each of these sections encompasses high quality contributions all informed by salient and recent research clear and justified theoretical standpoints and good practices which are appealing to an international audience and setting The editors sincerely hope that this volume contributes to widen the field of foreign language teaching and learning to include studies on young learners perceptions and performance At the same time they would like to highlight the decisive new focus on language learning adopted in the 21st century the inclusion of a wider vision of language acquisition one that highlights the relevance of using languages not only to communicate but more relevantly to mediate between cultures as a means to bring together the plurilingual and pluricultural citizens of our future

Internationalizing Higher Education with National Characteristics: Similar Global Trends but Different Responses Min Hong, 2022-08-25 In an era of globalization internationalization of higher education IHE has been constructed as an almost inevitable trend and has become a common pursuit of many nations in their higher education HE policies This book focuses on two nations China and Australia in terms of this trend The broadest aim of this book was to find out the interactive relationships between global and national pressures in policy development by comparing the international HE policies in China and Australia The three categories overarching meta policies at the macrolevel nation institution focused policies at the mesolevel universities and people focused policies at the microlevel individuals are documented and analyzed Similarities and differences are identified Similarities include promoting and deepening IHE as one important agenda in national policies at the macrolevel in the two nations promoting transnational cooperation in the provision of HE at the mesolevel as well as increasing international student numbers and encouraging an outflow of student learning and exchanges at the microlevel Differences include China's soft power initiatives and Australia's appeal for the sustainability of international HE as a national priority in the area of IHE at the macrolevel the focus on World Class Universities construction in China and strengthening the overall HE system in Australia and different issues in relation to people mobility and brain circulation specifically encouraging more outflow of students and attracting more inflow of talents and international students in China and over reliance on international students financially in Australia It is suggested that different responses to the global trends reflect the specificities of each nation and the ways path dependent factors mediate global pressures This comparison will facilitate a better understanding of how globalization has affected and been responded to in IHE policies and enable a better understanding of their path dependent mediation through a focus on two specific sets of national policies
