Wagner,2015-03-31 Did Christ atone for the sins of humanity on the cross Does God desire all people to be saved and direct his grace toward all people for that purpose There are some Christians following a deterministic paradigm who believe this is not true They believe God has predestined some people for heaven and many or even most for hell The rising tide of Calvinism and its TULIP theology needs to be respectfully answered Grace for All The Arminian Dynamics of Salvation features a distinguished international panel of scholars to examine this controversy These writers address issues such as election free will grace and assurance They make compelling scriptural arguments for the universality of God s grace contending that Christ atoned for the sins of all people and that God sincerely offers forgiveness for all through Christ This book strives to uncover the biblical position on salvation We hope the reader will enjoy this stimulating series of articles on the Arminian perspective and that it will spur further writing and discussion Grace for All The Arminian Dynamics of Salvation is an updated and revised version of Grace Unlimited a 1975 collection of scholarly articles assembled by the late Clark H Pinnock of McMaster Divinity College Summa Theologica (All Complete & Unabridged 3 Parts +
